<Never Too Big>

by <Growing Desires>

Chapter 1

Norm answered the slow methodical knocking at the door, it was like a slow heartbeat, it put him on edge. He knew exactly who it was, it was Natalie. Natalie was a relatively new addition to his life, a mostly welcome one, but something was off putting about her. Natalie was a control freak, she had to wear the pants in the relationship. It was a bit of a stretch to call what they had a relationship; they had only been seeing each other two weeks. It was quite apparent though that Natalie and Norm were going to see more of each other.

Their first date Norm took her to a restaurant downtown and he was quite surprised at how much she ordered for food; he was even more surprised that she spent a lot of time feeding it to Norm. He couldn't complain too much, the food was expensive, and Natalie was rich by all accounts so he ate it all up as she even got to a point of taking the forkfuls and putting them into his mouth.

Norm was a slight man, he was surprised that she even matched with him, he was honest and said he was 5"8 but in reality, he was 5"6. He was always frustrated by his height and slight build, it was a constant thought for him, he felt insignificant. Natalie changed that however, for the first time in years he felt like he was being respected in spite of his short stature. In comparison Natalie was a goddess, her shape screamed goth girlfriend mommy vibes, she was very pale, she wore mostly dark colours and had a few pieces of Gothic inspired jewellery. She was two years older than Norm and acted very mature, she had long black hair that she wore down, it covered half her back, it would've reached the same length in front, but Natalie had two obstructions. Her breasts.

Natalie had the two largest breasts Norm had ever seen, even in her very modest profile picture it was easy to see that she was stacked, but in real life, she was a sight to behold. Each breast was the size of a watermelon, he wasn't great at bra sizes, but he would've said mid alphabet at his best guess. They filled out her black dress and although the dress wasn't low cut, the weight her breasts were putting on the fabric caused the fabric to stretch the neckline to such a degree that her boobs were very much on display.

Norm couldn't help but stare at them often, especially given her height. She was a tall woman, towering above Norm, she said she was 6'4 because of the heels, those 10 inches had her breasts pretty much eye level with him. He could feel his excitement from the moment he saw her, she wasn't dissuaded by his height, actually Norm was sure he saw her smirk when they first met, like she was pleased with his appearance, something that Norm had never experienced before.

He was quite thin overall and lacked muscle, his black hair was mid length on his head and the rest of his features were unremarkable. His fashion sense was something that worried him, but Natalie didn't seem to mind, he decided to wear a button up shirt that was tucked in his jeans. He looked smart, well for him anyway. By the end of the night Norm noticed that his shirt was feeling quite snug, all the food that she had fed him was now starting to have an effect on his thin body. He looked down and saw that his stomach was sticking out, it was tightly packed from all the food and the buttons were struggling to contain the newly formed gut on Norm.

His gaze to his abdomen was too long not to draw attention from Natalie.

"What have you got there?" Her voice lingered in the air seductively. "Indulged too much?"

She was sitting opposite so the table blocked the view from Norm's body but she knew from his red cheeks that she hit the nail on the head.

The table had four seats, she pushed her chair back and stood up, Norm watched as her breasts bounced and jiggled above the table. Natalie made her way to his side of the table and sat next to him. Her eyes lit up when she saw how bloated he was.

"You sure have indulged." She said sweetly. "But look, you've got more left."

Norm didn't even notice that she had barely eaten any of her food but took more forkfuls from her willing hands. He let out a few pained groans, the belt on his trousers feeling like he was being cut into two. Natalie, without warning, slipped her hands beneath the table and undone his belt and with a big grunt, Norm watched as his stomach pushed out. Natalie's delicate touch danced over its surface. Her hand rubbed his round stomach and leaned closer to him, her breasts squishing against his arm.

"I think we are going to have fun together, Norm."

That was two weeks ago and now standing in his doorway was the busty Natalie, they had spent a few days together since that date night, but their dates often ended the same way, Norm very stuffed and bloated and her delicate hands rubbing around his round gut. Three days ago was their last date and that ended the same but there was something different. Norm found himself incredibly turned on after feeling the effects of her feeding.

Two weeks isn't a long time but the effects on his body were starting to become apparent. Norm's clothes were becoming tighter and he wasn't noticing, people in work were starting to make comments and Norm would hear one every now and then, it didn't discourage him, he didn't care, he only cared about one thing. Natalie.

His friends and family were starting to get worried, they made comments.

"You shouldn't be able to gain weight that quick." And "You are getting fat." Etc, again these comments meant nothing to the infatuated Norm. Only one thing did. Natalie.

He had gained 25 lbs by this point already, quite a shocking amount which mostly fell in his belly, although he was noticing a bit of jiggle forming around his chest.

Natalie had arrived and immediately pinned him against the wall with her tits, His head sitting firmly between her pale orbs. Since they had so much fun on their first meeting, she started revealing more, the large tantalising breasts had an impressive hold over Norm.

She looked down at his chubbier face and her hands reached under her breasts and started to massage his stomach softly, feeling her hands sink into the soft flesh.

"I think I should take care of you again, how about we go out to that new place on the pier..." She didn't give Norm a chance to say anything, not that he would've said no, she placed her lips against his and gave one big squeeze of his gut before pulling him by the wrist out the door.

They sat and the routine continued as it normally does, Norm would order food, Natalie ordered a lot more but fed it all to him. She got up to use the ladies' room at one point, instructing him to finish the plate he was working on before she returned. Norm watched his busty date bounce away for a few seconds before he started shovelling the food into his mouth, not wanting to let Natalie down.

The gluttonous display was attracting stares and comments, Norm didn't care, he was really focused on finishing this plate for Nat. His shirt had ridden up and a large portion of his rounded stomach was on display for the other patrons to see. One inebriated guy looked at Norm and laughed.

"Hey buddy, I don't think your bird wants to be seen with a tubby boy like you, move along, I'll look after her."

Norm's face went flush, a mixture between embarrassment and anger, before he could open his mouth the man winced.

"Excuse me, I don't recall inviting you to our table." Natalie said with venom in her voice, she had twisted his wrist around and leaned in close to say in a malicious whisper. "Why don't you take your drunk ass and tiny cock and get the fuck out of my sight and leave my "Boy" alone."

He yelped in pain as she twisted further. "Okay! Jesus lady!"

Natalie released him, he made a snide comment about her tits which Norm and Natalie both ignored. Natalie sat next to Norm and rested his head on her shoulder.

"There there..." She patted his head. "Keep eating..."

Chapter 2

Eating the rest of the meal and even extras, Norm and Natalie headed towards his place, it was closer. He waddled across the pier, struggling to keep a decent pace. His stomach was sticking out so far from the meal, Natalie was rubbing it as if he were a pregnant woman.

When they arrived at his house, he was fumbling with the keys too much, Natalie kissed him on the cheek and took the keys off him.

"Awh Norm, you are such a good piggy. Let me." She opened the door and pushed him in, belly first, he stumbled through the door and straight to the couch.

That was the first time she called him piggy, he had a feeling that wouldn't be the last, he did expect that to be a turn off, but something excited him about it. He was a pig; a huge fat pig and he revelled in it. Looking down now he saw his huge ball gut mostly on display, it had far exceeded what he thought possible but it was still so arousing to him, to see his gravid form. His cock was becoming hard under his stomach, flexing against the taut dome.

Natalie had that look again in her eyes, one like she was eyeing up her prey. For the first time Norm noticed something new with Natalie, her nipples were getting hard under her dress, it was hard to tell from the black fabric but due to their size, they were visible.

Huge nipples to match the huge tits she had... Makes sense. Norm thought to himself.

Her hands lovingly rubbed his stomach as it rested heavily between his thighs, his cock being pinned against the sofa and his belly. The full feeling was equal parts arousing as it was painful. He was so stuffed but so horny, by the looks of Natalie's nipples she was in a similar mood. Her hands were roaming the his taut stomach and he was letting out soft groans of pleasure and discomfort.

"Do you like this?" She asks softly.

"Mmm Hmmm" Norm groaned back, loving his partner's touch.

"Me too... You are just... So... So full." She said excitedly.

Natalie shook his stomach, causing it to bounce against his cock, this elicited a moan from the bloated Norm. He flung his head back and felt Natalie continue to become rougher with his stomach, she moved one of his legs and started to straddle it, her body pressing against his stomach, her huge breasts hovering over his face. She lowered the top of her dress and released her breasts, still in their bra, into the open. Seeing the amount of boob on display only aroused Norm further, he closed his eyes and just enjoyed the sensations. He was too stuffed to move much more but he didn't need to, Natalie started to undo her bra and she guided her thick nipple into his mouth. The hard nub entering his mouth made his eyes bolt open and he looked up at the pleased face of Natalie as she was grinding his thigh, her torso rubbing his round stomach.

Norms head was nearly consumed by her huge breast as he suckled greedily from her teat. Natalie was starting to grind faster, her pleasure coming to a quick crescendo, she shook from the explosive orgasm she felt.

"More." She said sternly.

Natalie jumped off Norm and rushed to the kitchen, Norm was unable to do much, seemingly pinned to the sofa by his gargantuan belly. He got a chance to see it again before she returned and he was convinced that it was rounder, bigger than before.

Must still be digesting. He thought to himself.

He was able to reach for his shirt and pull it up, revealing his hairy stomach, the cold air wasn't quite as abrasive as he thought, it was quite soothing. Natalie returned suddenly and rushed over to Norm. She had removed her bra during her rummage through the kitchen, the rest of her clothes too but Norm was too focused on her huge breasts.

They were very perky considering their size, however they did still succumb to gravity somewhat, they did bounce and jiggle as she ran into the room. Norm didn't even notice that she had packets of crisps and other sweets in her hands, he was too mesmerised by her jostling chest.

Norm wasn't given a second to say anything, Natalie just started to shovel food into his mouth, which he graciously accepted. Natalie's body leaned against his stomach and rubbed it with her free hand, the other busy feeding Norm.

"Eat it... Eat it all..." She commanded, quickly finishing off the food.

She made a second and third trip into the kitchen to continue to feed Norm. He was all consuming, he kept eating, pushing through the pain and resistance, constantly swallowing, and eating. When she finished the third set of food she looked at Norm with fire in her eyes.

"You... You ate it all..." She said weakly. "It's... It is all in here".

Natalie's hands both went to his stomach which had pumped up more, it didn't have much more stretch to give since they got home so the swelling wasn't as forward as before, it now rose higher on his torso. It looked like a true ball gut, something that started just under his newly formed moobs. Natalie quickly jumped up and straddled his stomach, she was grinding his packed stomach uncontrollably. Norm was still so aroused from the events prior to this second feast, the events of the feast only adding to it. The busty woman was now grinding his stomach, the feeling of his belly undulating against his still rock-hard cock was driving him closer to the edge.

Lost in the lust, he started to kiss and lick her stomach, he just wanted to show her affection anyway he could. He moved his hands to the sides of his stomach and started to shake and jiggle it, the movements beneath Natalie causing her to scream in pleasure. Suddenly she was cumming again, hard.

She slipped off his stomach and not so graciously found herself on the floor, looking up towards the sofa, she was turned on by what she saw. The gargantuan round belly of norm. Slick with a mixture of her juices and sweat, she stared in awe. Then she saw for the first time, his cock. The tip was barely visible thanks to his stomach crushing it against the sofa.

Natalie lifted herself off the floor and kissed the tip, enjoying the feeling of his huge belly resting against her face. Norm moaned from beyond the mountainous belly, Natalie kissed again, this time burying her face against his stomach and sofa. Her tongue danced around the tip and the pleased moans from Norm filled the room. She knew she had to have more.

Her palms spread across the bottom of his stomach and she pushed, lifting the heavy gut up, revealing more of his cock. She was shocked at how endowed he was, she didn't linger on the thought, she just pounced on it. Natalie was now sucking Norm's rod, her hand needing to keep the massive belly lifted to make sure she wouldn't be crushed beneath it. Truth be told, she enjoyed that thought very much. It didn't take Norm too long to finally release his seed, it was a huge load, Natalie's cheeks puffed up to contain the torrent from his balls before she swallowed it all. Spent and exhausted from the stuffing, Norm rested his head back on the sofa's back cushions and the last thing he felt was Natalie sitting next to him, her hand playing with his hair.

Chapter 3

Norm woke up the next morning in his bed alone. He still felt very full, even just coming round from his slumber he could tell he was still packed tight, his hand tentatively roamed under the blanket to his stomach. His hand hit the wall of his stomach, it was still so incredibly swollen, he pressed his finger into it and felt it sink much deeper than it could last night.

Hmmm?

He flung the blanket off his body and noticed quickly that he looked fatter, somehow, impossibly and rapidly, he was now pushing 300 lbs, his fat belly was pushed flat by gravity as his fat oozed over the surface of the bed.

You can't just gain 100 lbs overnight... Can you?

The question was moot, he was clearly fatter, his stomach stuck out much further than yesterday and even looking over the rest of his body he noticed his arms were fatter too. His chubby hands felt around the new added pounds on his body, and he felt his cock spring into action. Something had changed within him, he wasn't convinced at first but now it was becoming clear, he was enjoying this growth, as impossible as it was, it turned him on. He thought about the events of last night, Natalie feeding him, enjoying his body as much as he was starting too, his chubby hand wrapped around his rigid cock, his heartbeat thumping in his ears. Thinking of Natalie, he was a little disappointed that she wasn't here to satisfy his need. Norm went to grab his phone off the nightstand, only to notice that Natalie's phone was there.

Too distracted by his body to notice the sounds coming from downstairs and the smell in the air, he was pleasantly surprised by his lover standing in the doorway with a tray of food and she was still naked. Her huge tits are mostly covered by the mountain of food. She could see his gaze and smiled.

“Are you looking at my boobs or the food?”

“Both...” He said through a soft moan.

“Oh honey, let me do that, you’ve got some eating to do.”

She rushes over, her tits jiggling wildly as she places the huge pile of food on top of Norms chubby middle, it balances on his taut gut. Her hands slowly rub their way down his hairy middle before wrapping around Norm’s hands.

“Let me...” She whispers. “Eat...”

Norm’s stomach rumbles and he does reach for some food, quickly shovelling it into his mouth, he rapidly consumes the meal, letting out soft moans as Natalie’s hand works his rigid cock. Natalie herself can’t take her eyes off him, she is enthralled by his gluttony, her face becoming flush. Over the course of the feast, his stomach starts to swell more, taking on a rounder look and stretching further by the second, it bulges over his cock, Natalie struggles to work his dick as his stomach swells, her hand slapping his lower belly. He keeps eating and really showing off his ability to put away food, he feasts.

“Oh... Norm... That is such a good boy...” She pushes his stomach from the underside, causing Norm to fall entirely on his back, his stomach being pushed towards his chin. Norm looks at his globe of a belly now trying to reach towards the ceiling.

Still... More... To... Grow...

During his fall, the food landed by the side of his head, his chubby hands reached for the food, and he started to shovel it into his mouth once more.

Grow... Grow... Big... Bigger...

Norm was in a trance. One thing on his mind. Growing.

Natalie was also fixated on one thing. Norms cock.

Was it... Bigger? She thought to herself, her eyes fixated on the rock-hard rod now exposed thanks to her efforts to lift his belly. Natalie wrapped her arms around his round stomach, unable to touch her hands together around its girth. She lifted herself and guided his cock to her exposed pussy entrance. His thick head was just starting to part her sensitive lips. Natalie’s tits were resting on his belly, despite his trance, the feeling of their weight on his stuffed belly was not lost to Norm. His cock twitched and entered her at that moment. Natalie started to lower herself on his cock slowly, moaning as she continued to take more of his massive length.

“Fuck... I think you’ve grown...”

Norm could only moan through his full mouth, still he shovelled more food into his face. He was now filling his very busty lover, she could feel his cock stretching her from within, each second it seemed to be exerting more pressure.

“Norm... You are such... A fucking big hog...” Natalie moaned, her grip on his stomach only getting tighter.

Norm’s belly was still expanding and spreading her arms wider apart, this aroused her more and she found that her pussy was convulsing on his cock in a matter of minutes. Undeterred by her growing lover and her stretched pussy, she continued to bounce herself on Norm’s huge dick.

He was definitely growing, the food was making him gain in more ways than one, Natalie continued a cycle of orgasming as Norm grew and grew. He looked like an inflated ball of fat by the time he was done and half his cock was already too much for Natalie to take. The cycle finally was broken when Norm finished the feast, he looked down at his gigantic ball of a stomach, covering a large portion of the bed, his hugely inflated stomach was so taut and round, Natalie’s arms were rubbing it frantically, trying to feel his entire stomach.

Norm’s focus had changed, his now significantly smaller lover had worked him up so much that he needed his own release. Somehow, his huge body was pushed into motion, first his belly pushed Natalie backwards, she was still attached to his cock and his belly started to roll over her body like a boulder.

The weight pinned her to the bed, now he was able to get onto his knees and lift some of the immense weight off of her somewhat. Norm starts to thrust, he grunts with low animalistic growls. His cock plunging deeper into Natalie, beneath his huge belly which is crashing onto her body she screams. It doesn’t last too long before Norm cums, he doesn’t warn Natalie, he just explodes deep inside her, claiming her for himself. He cums for 30 seconds straight, his cock pulsating and her pussy exploding with cum from being filled so much. Norm can only fall backwards and be pinned back to the bed by his huge round belly after his eruption.

Natalie is writhing on the other side of the bed, still moaning from the aftershocks of their sex. The room is filled with the laboured pants from both of them before Natalie rises to her feet. She stands next to Norm on the bed, he gasps as he sees the “damage” he has done.

Natalie is filled with his cum, her belly distended from her like she is in the second trimester, her formerly thin midsection was now so bloated from his cum. She cradles her bump and looks at her fattened lover.

“You are such a good growing boy for me...”

Chapter 4

The events of the morning take it out of them both and they crawl back into bed and fall asleep once more. They both undergo some changes during their slumber, by the time they wake up it is mid-afternoon. Norm is the first to wake up, he feels a cold draft on his feet, it takes him a second to realise that his feet are hanging off the edge of the bed, outside of the warmth of the blanket. He jolts upright and finds it first shocking that he is able to do so, when he was last conscious there was effectively a boulder in place of his gut. His stomach was larger but nowhere near the gravid size he was prior to their morning snooze.

Looking down Norm sees his belly still covers a good portion of his thighs, the fat gut is a lot softer than before, but it still is big. His formerly thin body was long gone at this point, in its place was a big fat gut and moobs. His thicker arms move his chubby hands onto his stomach, inquisitively prodding it to make sure it was real. When his hand meets his stomach, he lets out a soft moan.

I am bigger... It is real...

Norm then notices the other change he has gone through, he is taller, significantly so. The 5'6 norm was now easily a foot taller, his realisation sent a shiver down his spine and a tinge to his now awake cock.

I am taller than her...

He looked to his side, looking at Natalie's back, she was still asleep, but he did notice something different about her too. Even from this angle it was clear to see that her boobs had grown.

They look... Full... Norm thought to himself.

His cock was snaking its way down his thigh, shocking him with how far it was reaching, he could feel it trying to burrow under his belly and towards his knee. It stopped after what he guessed to be eleven and a half inches, much bigger than he was prior. He took his fat hand and placed it on Natalie's side. This roused her from her slumber, she let out a soft moan as Norm's hand started to rub up her side towards her breast. He couldn't help himself, he needed to feel those huge melons.

"Oh... Norm... Is my big boy awake and wanting something?" She shifted herself and twisted so that she was now on her back.

Norm let out a gasp.

Her breasts were indeed bigger but so was her stomach, she looked even bigger after being filled up, her stomach had grown, she looked to be approaching her due date with a bump that round. She did look to be carrying a bit small, but she definitely looked expectant. Natalie didn't seem that surprised, she knew what he was looking at and leaned into it. She rubbed her stomach and smiled at him. Her hands exploring bump beneath the blanket, Norm rips the cover off and sees her for her true size. Without the blanket she still looked large. Her taut skin on her belly looked taxed, but not enough to gain any stretch marks.

Norm was right about her breasts, those had indeed grown, topped by now much darker nipples, Norm knew she was indeed pregnant.

"I guess you are rather potent..." She cooed lovingly. "Don't be scared..." She leaned over and kissed his fat bicep.

He wasn't scared, he was shocked, but seeing what he had done to her body. He felt aroused more than anything else.

Natalie could sense his burning desire and did what she did best. Took charge. She rose to her feet, an impressive effort for someone who was now suddenly carrying a baby bump and inflated tits. She positioned herself at the edge of the bed and beckoned Norm over. He shifted his heavier body and shuffled across the surface of the mattress, the movement causing a mass amount of jiggle. Natalie was starting to blush, enjoying her handiwork.

Norm spread his legs and let his belly fall free off the side of the bed, it had a good amount of projection and now in position, his belly was touching hers. Norm's easily dwarfed her swollen middle, she started to rub her hands over the hairy mass before her, grinding her smooth belly against his for a few seconds before she regained her focus. Moving her leg between his thighs, pressing into his stomach, she found his rigid cock and pinned it against his thigh.

“Oooo... My piggy wants something?” She placed her hand softly against his face.

Norm nods.

“I have just the thing... Open wide sweetie...”

Norm’s mouth opens wide, and he watches intently as Natalie lifts her breast to his mouth, his lips wrapping around her nipples, he instinctively starts to suckle. Natalie lets out a soft moan and starts to rub his fat middle.

“Yes... Yes...” She moans.

Norm starts to taste something entering his mouth, sweet, soothing and filling, it was Natalie’s breast milk. Apparently her sudden pregnancy had allowed her to start lactating, and now here Norm was, feeding from her. Natalie was getting increasingly aroused and she started to rub his cock against his thigh with her leg, her hands unable to stop from rubbing his fat belly, it was slowly becoming more taut by the second. It was starting to swell too, pushing further forward and against her own rounded stomach.

This carried on for about 15 minutes before her boob had been completely drained, greedily Norm snatched the other nipple and started to consume from that teat too. Natalie didn’t protest, she just moaned from the sensation change to her other nipple.

She rubbed his hair and pulled him closer to her breast, almost smothering him with her huge boob. A feat which would be entirely possible because of the growth she has undergone since lactation had started. Another 15 minutes passed and her breast dries up, Norms stomach was starting to protrude so much at this point it almost required her to change positions. Natalie took a step back and looked at his now inflated stomach. The belly should look smaller on his now considerably taller frame but thanks to the amount of milk Natalie was able to produce, he once again found himself looking truly gravid. He was huffing and puffing from feeling so bloated by the highly calorific breast milk, he felt Natalie’s index finger press right between his moobs and give him a firm push.

“Lay back...” she said as she pushed him backward into a comfortable position. "Let Mommy take care of you baby" she cooed.

Norm's taut stomach was so perky and thanks to his size, she didn't even need to lift his belly off of his cock to gain access, instead, she lowered herself and started to stroke his hard cock, revelling in the size, her hands starting to jerk the entire length. She moved the tip to her lips and parted them to start to lick and suck on his throbbing rod. The bloated Norm groaned from both the feeling of being so full but also the feeling of Natalie's tongue dancing around his cock.

He slapped the side of his belly, causing it to shake and jiggle, the sound reverberating off the walls.

"Big... So fucking big... You've made me so big... I want more..." He moaned in admission. "I want to be the biggest... The fucking biggest, most massive, gigantic..." He trails off, the arousal of everything starting to get the better of him.

Natalie moans on his cock, she was enjoying the fact that she had made him so bloated but also to hear his pleasure with the changes, that was turning her on too. She slaps the underside of his belly, and feeling herself quiver from the feeling, coupled with his moan.

"I'm going to get bigger... Bigger for you..." He moaned. "Bigger for me... Bigger, just fucking bigger..." he was losing his composure, if he ever had it since growing.

Natalie gripped his thicker thighs and started to deep throat his rod; she wasn't quite able to take his entire length, but she was able to accommodate his girth. The rapid bobbing of her head drove the fat Norm into an orgasm the likes he had never felt, the explosion clouded every other sense and he writhed and arched his back from the spasms he was feeling throughout his body. He looked down and saw how his stomach looked even bigger and more round, it only served to push him harder.

He erupted in a massive load, again much more than normal. Natalie swallowed it all, by the time she got up Norm could see that the amount of cum he had produced had an effect on her figure, the cum made her belly now push out more.

Panting and laying on the bed, he looked down at his round stomach and gave it a pat. Natalie placed her loving hand on it and rubbed it gently.

"I wonder how much my milk will make you grow..."

Chapter 5

After being so thoroughly filled and exhausted from the vigorous activity, Norm fell into another slumber, his whole body warm and tingling as he drifted off into a sleep.

“Sleep tight sweetie...” He heard Natalie whisper softly as she rubbed her round stomach and looked at Norm.

“Norm... It’s time to wake up.” Natalie’s soft voice pulled him from his deep sleep. “You’re done growing... Open your eyes... See what I did to you...”

The words don’t mean anything to Norm as he drifts back to the real world. He lifts his hand and groans as it bumps into something above him, his outstretched hand smashing through the material, he opens his eyes and sees the palm sized hole in the ceiling. Looking towards his hand which has since exited the hole he sees it is covered in the white centre of the plaster ceiling.

He finally notices his figure now. Another growth spurt, this time it seems to be more vertical than anything else, the back of his torso fills the bed and his legs are leading out the doorway. To his side is Natalie, admiring his gargantuan size.

“I guess you got big...” Her voice is low and seductive, her size turning Norm on.

She was one to talk, her own transformation had also made her grow, not nearly as much as Norm. Her stomach protruded off her torso massively now, she appeared to be painfully distended, her stomach taut and fit to burst. Her already massive breasts had entered a whole new size range. Each was way past their previous watermelon size and now looking more like beach balls filled with water, the only thing to rival their size was her stomach and Norms.

Norms belly was huge, it took up a large portion of the room, it could easily fit two people inside at its current size, thanks in part to his height growth. The rest of the fat was more evenly distributed around his now ten-foot-tall body. Natalie lumbered towards him, her body shaking from the short distance she had to travel, her girth almost too much for her, Norm was surprised that she was able to continue to move as well as she did. Seeing her bloated and bulbous form aroused Norm. His cock too had grown along with his body. It now resembled the calf of a normal man. Natalie caught it shifting and snaking out from between his thick thighs, becoming erect and getting caught on the doorway.

She bit her lip. "More... You want more don't you..."

Norm's voice was deeper now, "Yes." His voice boomed.

"Then grow for me..." She shoved her engorged nipple back into his mouth, his large lips wrapped tightly around her breast, and he started to suckle. Her hand started to stroke his hair as she cooed.

"Bigger Norm... I want you to be bigger too... I want you to be the biggest... Big isn't big enough, I want you gigantic." She slapped his tightening stomach as she said that last part to punctuate her point.

He drained the first breast in no time at all and quickly cleared the second, his stomach had visibly grown with the contents of her breasts now sitting in Norm's gut. The huge hairy ball was stretched and pressed against the ceiling. He laid his head back and groaned. The feeling of being so full of her breast milk was almost too much for Norm, he rubbed the belly which now dwarfed his huge body, it wedged him between the ceiling and the bed and still he felt something deep inside that could only be described as desire. His lust for the growth he had experienced was something he hadn't felt before. He knew what he had to do.

"Nat... Get outside."

He watched Natalie waddle towards the door, he felt her press against his legs in the doorway and squeeze through the frame. He waited a few minutes before he heard a knock on the window. He knew that was the sign he needed.

"Big." He looked at his belly. "But... Bigger..."

Norm took a deep breath and marvelled at the expansion occurring before his eyes. His stomach started to swell and press into the ceiling, the taut belly had some give and it spread tightly over the surface constricting it, finally running out of surface area to spread outwards to, he arched his back and heard the crash as his stomach broke through the ceiling. The resulting springing effect caused the ceiling to be propelled through the roof too. Laying on the bed, he could see the blue sky. His belly almost filled the entirety of the hole. He groaned as he lifted himself to a sitting position, his stomach crashing down on the wall of his bedroom. He shuffled backwards to accommodate its girth. It was a tight squeeze, but he lifted himself to his feet and looked down at his bedroom floor, his head just about reaching above the hole in the tiled roof.

“Norm...” Natalie moaned.

It was broad daylight and Natalie was naked in his back garden, her huge tits sagging over her hugely packed belly and her thick nipples still very erect. Norm was wearing his house at this point but he needed her, he needed more, he wanted out.

“Stand back.” He instructed.

Natalie wobbled to the furthest reaches of his fence and watched in awe as Norm smashed his way through his wall, the gargantuan ball gut like a wrecking ball. Natalie looked up at him, his belly blocking most of the view from him. She moaned and lovingly rubbed her stomach.

Norm had a pool, it was rather deep, about seven feet or so, thankfully that meant he could stand in it and be a normal height compared to his smaller lover. He did just that, causing a huge amount of water to overflow and flood his garden, he managed to conceal his stomach in the water and only the tops of his chest were now visible. The once fat moobs had now spread out their fat and he just looked thick, there was definitely some tone there. He didn't realise at first but his arms were also now a bit more muscly. If he were able to see his legs, he would then see that those too were defined.

Natalie waddled over to the edge of the pool and sat down on the edge, her feet going into the water, her belly distending and sagging slightly into the water too. They both just sat there for a few minutes in silence, both incredibly aroused but also shocked at what had just happened. There was clearly no going back now, there was only one thing left for them to do. Grow.

Chapter 6

Norm's stomach shook violently as it demanded its next meal, he looked at Natalie, her breasts were still empty and looking a bit deflated. They weren't going to be full for a bit longer. She knew she had to provide so she got back up, Norm's large hand helped her up and she waddled back into the house, through the rubble to get some food. She returned with a few things, not nearly enough for Norm's belly.

He grunted dissatisfied.

"That is all you had. Now before you get angry with me, why don't you give me a second."

She produced his phone and started typing away.

"What are you doing?" He asked.

"Inviting Matt over for a BBQ, asked him to bring some food."

"You can't do that... He'll see..." he looked down at his body with an ashamed expression but paused. He wasn't ashamed, he was proud, he was turned on, he was anything but ashamed. He looked back at her. "Let him come. Let him see how big I've grown."

It didn't take too long for his first guest to arrive and rang the doorbell, Norm's voice carried well so he called out from the back.

"Come around."

The side gate to the garden was open and Natalie and Norm were in the pool, Norm was able to bend his body so that just his head was above the water, Natalie was the same except she was using Norm as a means of keeping her head above water.

"Hey Nor- What the fuck happened here?" Matt said.

Matt had been friends with Norm since they were kids, they never left each other's side during that time, life was getting in the way a bit, but they still made time to see each other at least once a week. Since meeting Natalie, Matt hadn't seen Norm but knew of her.

"Oh, don't worry about that." Norm dismissed.

"Don't worry? Half your house is gone bud!" Matt said in a panic.

"Did you bring food?" Norm asked, looking at the bags in his hands.

"Yeah but-" He was interrupted by Norm snatching a bag from his hand and quickly throwing the food into his mouth, forgoing even taking the packaging off.

Matt fell onto his ass and looked at Norm to finally notice that he was bigger. His head was larger above the water, his hand that snatched his food too was larger. Norm greedily stuffed food into his stomach and before Matt could realise what had happened, he saw Norm staring at him.

Like deer in the headlights, Matt scurried backwards, the bag by his side was the clear target. Norm reached for it with his long arm but was too short. Matt watched as Natalie, entirely naked, started to walk towards him. He didn't even see her get out of the water.

"You know Matt, you shouldn't keep Norm from his food." She said in a soft tone that was eerily off putting to Matt but sweet to Norm.

Her boobs had filled up considerably since making the call to invite Matt over, her massive breasts were back to their larger and round state. She picked up the bag and turned around and shimmied her hips and walked over to Norm.

"Norm has got a big appetite... It would be in your best interest to get him more food." She said dismissively.

After handing the other bag to Norm she started to waddle over to Matt, stunned he watched as her hugely distended stomach moved closer to his face. She stopped less than an inch from his face.

"I wasn't asking... Neither was he. You'd best get a move on."

Matt stood up and standing next to the hugely busty Natalie he was stunned. "You. Better. Bring. Us. Food." She said in a stern voice, she took a step forward and bumped him backwards with her belly. "You understand?" He was bumped again, he kept back tracking until his back hit the partially demolished wall of Norms house.

"Nowhere to run." Her belly collided with him, it pressed into his body, and she leaned forward and her tits spilled over his chest. His whole body was almost covered by Natalie.

"I asked. Do you understand."

As Matt was about to answer he felt something, looking at Natalie's fiery eyes, he felt her grow then and there. Not a massive amount but her breasts bulged forward and were resting against his chin.

"Go." She barked.

Matt slithered free and ran to his car.

"What makes you think he will listen?" Norm asked, picking packaging from his teeth.

"Am I not persuasive?"

Norm didn't answer fast enough, Natalie sat at the edge of the pool and looked him right in his eyes. "Give me your cock."

Norm leaned back and his thick long cock breached the water, it was thicker than Natalie's arm, she couldn't even take its huge head into her mouth because it was so large. She licked and rubbed the tip. Norm was pent up from most of the events of the past few days all rushing around his head but the last hour or so was like some sort of secret fantasy he didn't even know about. His body being so big that he can't fit in his house, his belly so large that pool is the only way to conceal it and his lover is now so full and plump with his cum? Child? Children? It was too much.

Natalie wanted his cock for another reason. She too had a desire to grow, she knew that Norm loved her huge tits, if they got bigger, she could feed him more, that is what she wanted. To make Norm grow, become bigger and bigger, huge and monstrous. She wanted him to be the biggest that he could be, and she would provide for that.

The excitement comes to a head in the form of a blast of thick cum, huge ropes of it being jettisoned from his long shaft, it was too much for her mouth to take, the cum burst out between her lips down his cock. Each pump was causing her stomach to push out further. Natalie groaned as it grew, feeling it become tighter and tighter her hands tried to soothe the stretching skin. Hugely inflated, cheeks pumped full of Norm's cum, she pops off the end of his cock with an audible pop.

Norm groans, his voice booming in the open air, his shame has all but disappeared, he grunts and moans louder as the aftershocks from his powerful orgasm still rock his body. He finally calms down, his breathing returning to normal, although his cock is still rigid. It is being made even harder from his stomach's side pinning it to the side of the pool. He looks over at Natalie and sees her now resting on her cum filled belly. The girth of it was enough to allow her to rest her entire body on it. She hugged it and was bouncing on top of the taut and bouncy mass, her hands reaching behind her for access to her soaking wet pussy. She was writhing between screams, apparently her growth was something that aroused her immensely.

Norm watched on as she came a few more times, he wasn't watching for that reason alone, it seemed that his cum was having an effect on his rounding lover. Natalie was growing. Her stomach was shrinking slightly but her breasts were enlarging, they were turning red from how taut and full they were getting, her veins were starting to become thick deep blue lines that sprawled across their gravid surface. They quickly entered the realm of the unimaginable, passing the girth of her stomach and easily being each bigger than exercise balls. Her stomach had shrunk down enough to be surpassed by the growing masses hanging off her chest.

Now, with her whole body being supported by her tits and tum, Natalie looked at Norm. She knew what she wanted to do, more than anything in the world. Somehow, she was able to self-right herself and she was, incredibly, able to stand. Her stomach and breasts did not seem to hinder her at all. She sat down by the side of the pool and lifted her turgid nipple to Norm's mouth.

"Let's make you big... Real big."

Chapter 7

Norm greedily took the thick nipple into his mouth and started to suckle, the immense pressure of the milk flowing into his mouth was, at first, too much for Norm but he quickly increased his pace. Natalie found the sensation very arousing and she did manage to cum a few times from it alone, however, she would not take her eyes off Norm's body. She watched as the huge belly started to stretch, it wasn't long before it was resting against the opposite side of the pool.

Still, he drank.

It started to bulge over the tiled side of the pool, each second allowing for more fatty tissue to spill onto the side and further out onto the grass. At just that moment, Matt returned with food. He appeared in the gate with a few bags in each hand, the handles cutting into his palms. He dropped them when he saw the growing belly of Norm starting to swell over the side of the pool, the larger Natalie now being suckled from. He takes one timid footstep back before Natalie screams.

"Get. Back. Here." She barked. "You've got a job to do." She beckons him over with her index finger, calling him closer. "With the food." She points to the bags on the floor.

He scrambles to pick up the bag and then rushes over to Natalie and Norm. He is trembling at the gargantuan sight before him. Norm's eyes are closed, he is moaning softly as he drinks from Natalie. His whole body is slowly growing, his stomach not so slowly. It has swollen so much that it has lifted itself over the edge of the pool entirely. Norm is leaning back as his taut stomach swells forward into the air. The huge hairy orb is now bigger than a car, it still grows by the second.

"Norm honey..." Her hand rubs his hair softly. "It is time to eat..." She coos.

Norm stops sucking and removes her nipple from his mouth before opening his eyes. Mildly shocked to see Matt had returned, he noted the trepidation in his eyes, he gave him a quick acknowledgement before he snatched the bag off the floor. Disregarding the packaging, his proportionally larger hands tear the bag open, and Norm just puts the food straight into his mouth. Very quickly the bag is gone, as is the next and the one after that. Norm is eating with a speed unmatched by even the greediest animal. Matt starts to back away, fearing he might be next on the menu. He bumps into the soft breast of Natalie, the light impact causes her to leak some milk.

"Be careful Matt, it was Matt, wasn't it?"

He nods.

"Wouldn't want to waste any of Norm's milk."

He shakes his head.

"Good boy Matt." She reaches forward and wraps her hand around his neck and pulls him into her vast cleavage. "You did good bringing Norm food, here is your reward."

She pays very little attention to Matt who is now swimming in an ocean of breasts, her eyes are firmly fixated on Norm. He has grown significantly thanks to the milk but now he is eating food again, Natalie is very curious about what that will do to him. She didn't have to wait too long; the food was having a rapid effect on the growing Norm. Blubber poured into his body, as if a tap had been turned on but also he was growing taller. Suddenly the pool's depth was of no significance to him. He now stood on his two feet, his stomach growing bigger than a car and headed into van territory. It started to bulge against the fence of his neighbour, and it quickly splintered wooden beams that were meant to ring his garden. It was no longer his neighbour's land, this land was all Norm's. His growing body made him feel power. He was just so big. There was nobody as big as him, anything he wanted, it was his.

Slowly, second by second, Norm's head was reaching higher into the sky, he grabbed the remaining bags and swallowed them whole, the bags looked tiny now in his massive hands and churning around his larger mouth. He let out a tremendous burp that shook the windows of everyone in the neighbourhood. People were now starting to see Norm as he rose high above the rooftops of the houses.

He didn't care, after all, why would someone so big care about things so small.

The only "small" thing he cared about was Natalie. He looked down, still hungry, at his lover and saw Matt buried deep within her breasts. He felt a pang of jealousy for a second before Natalie pointed to Matt's body.

He knew why she had done what she had now.

His large hand grips around Matt's body, kicking and screaming, Norm pushed Matt's flailing body between his lips and swallowed him in one big gulp. He felt him wriggle down his throat until he fell into the sea of food held within his stomach. Natalie looked aroused by the size of Norm and even more so now having seen him just eat a whole person. She looked at him expectantly.

Norm's growth hadn't stopped, he grew taller still, his gigantic stomach was now several feet off the floor, leaving room for his cock to be free from the pool. It was gigantic, easily large enough to sit multiple people on, in his stuffed state it almost protruded further out than his belly, but the mass of food meant that his stomach barely edged out. He turned sideways and Natalie looked up in awe as his stomach blocked out the sky, the huge dome hovering and quivered above her inflated body. That wasn't the main focus however, his gigantic cock was.

It looked immense, even her hugely pumped-up tits wouldn't have had much of a chance to cover its head, still she tried, her tongue licking it rapidly. She could hear the deep moans from Norm as she worked his cock the massive rod was throbbing and twitching from her play and it wasn't long before she could see his belly start to descend lower as his knees wobbled and gave way. She reached up and slapped the underside and gave a short rub to the hairy dome which was now immanently close to crushing her. Thankfully when Norm came, he leaned backwards otherwise Natalie would've been squashed for sure. His large ass crashing onto the other side of the pool, his belly covering the distance across it, Norm's rigid cock blasted Natalie's body with a torrent of cum. It covered her all over. She opened her mouth and swallowed what she could, knowing it would make her expand.

The cum covered his house and the hole in it, Natalie was covered too, not for long, however. The cum soaked into her skin quickly and she found a warmth irradiating from deep inside. She felt her body stretch and grow. She grew taller, enough to gain some mobility back but she was also still so big elsewhere. Her huge pregnant belly was a dominant feature on her body but still not as much as her tits. Her breasts were taut, filled to the brim with milk thanks to this latest growth spurt. She grew to about 15 ft before stopping, not half as tall as Norm by this point but in a much more physically capable situation.

"Norm... I need your help." Norm looked over to her as she gestured to her tits. "Drain me..."

Chapter 8

Reaching down to pick her up with one hand, Norm lifted his large fertility goddess up from the floor with one hand, as if she were nothing. Now looking her directly in the eyes he planted a big kiss on Natalie's face. He sat her on his gut and looked at her lovingly.

"Thank you..." He said in a slow tone, the effects of his expanding body were causing Norm a great deal of brain fog as he continued to grow still. "You've made me so big... I..." He looked around, aroused and excited at the increasing distance from the floor.

"Oh Norm... You are so big, so incredibly huge..." She said, rubbing the hair on his chest. "But... I'm feeling full... Do you think you could grow even more?"

Norm didn't answer verbally, he wrapped his big hand around her and lifted her to his mouth, his large lips locking around her huge tits and drinking from her once again. He was surprisingly stable on his feet despite his level of arousal, Norm just grew. Every suck, every mouthful, every swallow, he was growing inches. His tremendous body grew outward and upward at a similar pace. His stomach was now surpassing the size of a bus, it was like a giant moon in the sky to those below.

It isn't every day that you see someone grow so large and cover the skyline, understandably people were distressed and fleeing from the neighbourhood. Norm didn't care, he just wanted to grow. Still inflating, still expanding, Norm drank from Natalie's massive breasts. His whole body grew, as did his cock. It was now larger than a telephone pole, much thicker too. It swung in the wind, rigid and pulsating.

After draining the first breast, He proceeded to drink from the second, the milk was still causing him to grow even though he stopped briefly, he knew that once this boob was empty, he still had some growing to do. He surpassed 60ft now, his feet spreading across the width of his garden, he barely noticed when his toes started to break through the half demolished wall of his house. He just drank.

Finally finishing off the supply he opened his eyes once more to see his perspective had changed. Natalie was bigger than most humans, to him, she was small. Not insignificant, that would be the fleeing people below. She was more like a doll in size, he was able to move her around effortlessly, but the people below were effectively bugs to him. He continued to grow, now with his eyes open, Natalie's breasts were now drained so he could enjoy the growth.

He was unable to resist touching himself, his massive cock was burning with desire, his hand wrapped around it and he started to stroke. The only way he could reach it was to manoeuvre it around the side of his massive stomach. Thanks to his length it was possible. Natalie even reached over and started to rub her fat tits against the head. The gargantuan cock didn't take long to erupt, the massive amount of cum rained down on the suburban beneath him, a good splattering of it being caught by Natalie, she greedily consumed it, wanting the effects to repeat themselves.

They did, her breasts grew, her body slightly grew but there was also a lot of muscle being given to her body so that she could fully regain her mobility. The 20ft woman was finding that she was able to move much more freely in spite of her massively pregnant middle and tits that could easily swallow her entire torso and then some.

Norm was still not done expanding, his stomach had reached the end of its growth, his metabolism now consuming the contents inside and shrinking slightly whilst his body still grew. His biceps bulged as did his thighs, his body was now transforming into a powerful form that was capable of holding up his body easier.

Finally his body stopped, he estimated around 100 ft, he looked down at the houses below him and felt a twinge of arousal.

"So big... The biggest... So powerful..." His still hard cock twitched beneath his ball gut.

"You are so big my love." Natalie said to him.

It broke him from his daze, and he looked at her with a fire in his eyes.

“More.” He groaned.

“More? You want to be bigger?”

He nodded.

“My boobs are filling back up for you, you can have more soon.” Natalie said, she could see the disappointment and maybe even anger on his face. “Maybe we can get you some food from town.”

Norm’s eyes went wide, Natalie still sat on his stomach felt her world move. Norm started to leap and bound towards the city, straight to the industrial estate where they make ready meals. Each thunderous footstep caused destruction in its wake, Norm didn’t care about it one bit, he was too big for it, he didn’t care. His foot stomped through some houses and cars but when he got to the city, he found that the larger buildings did require some traversal.

His stomach was bumping into some of the multistorey buildings and causing damage to them as his globular stomach burst through the sides of the building. His cock was still so stiff and hard from his excitement, that too was causing destruction as it swung beneath his stomach.

Finally getting to his destination he ripped the roof off the building and looked down at the cowering workers below.

“Feed. Me.” He barked.

Natalie slid off his stomach and landed in the factory, thankfully she was a lot nimbler thanks to her smaller size, she didn’t destroy any equipment.

“You heard him, Feed him. YOU!” she pointed at a worker. “Divert that conveyor to here.” Natalie pointed, orchestrating the production line so that the food would be in a readily accessible place for Norm to eat it directly.

His large hand was cupped beneath the belt as package after package of food fell into his hand, after about 50 boxes filled his palm, he lifted it and scooped down on the food, packaging included. He groaned from the feast, but it wasn’t quick enough. Natalie could see it on his face, she scratched her head thinking what could be done, realising there were multiple vats of ingredients, she drew Norm’s attention to it.

“Hey big boy, over here.” She gestured to the vat like she was on a game show.

His eyes went wide, and he reached for the metal container and lifted it straight out of the floor, it was like a cup in his hand but to the people below it was thousands of litres worth of sauce for the meals. He drank it quickly, Natalie pointed out another and another. He downed them all, still not sated by the feast. If anything, the food was only turning him on, he could feel the warm contents sloshing around in his stomach, making him more bloated. His hand rubbed his bloated belly and then he felt something tugging below.

Turning to the side so his belly wasn't blocking his view he could see now Natalie was climbing on top of his cock, riding it like a witch riding a broom. Her tits wrapped around its girth, a true testament to the size of her tits. Now Natalie was the one in a trance, her body writhing and grinding against his cock.

Norm groaned from the stimulation and looked over to the next factory.

"All mine. It is all mine. I am just so fucking big. This city is mine."

Seeing his next feast he lumbered his stuffed stomach over to the next factory and ripped the roof off, Natalie still riding his cock. He saw more food in vats and quickly downed everything he could, the rubbing of his dick was causing him to eat faster. It wasn't long before he had cleared more factories, the food wasn't having the same effect as before, it was just making him feel bloated and lethargic. He lowered himself onto the ground, his giant ass crushing a few cars in the car park of the factory he had just raided. He laid himself back and watched as his taut stomach rose high into the sky, blocking the sun.

His hands started to rub his girth and he groaned softly, Natalie still massaging his cock, having now slid down its length thanks to gravity. She bent the rod downward so that she could continue to pleasure her giant lover.

"Big... Big... So big..." Norm moaned softly as he felt Natalie bring him to the edge again. Another massive eruption. Norm screamed out in pleasure, his spent cock not softening despite the onslaught of Natalie and her giant tits.

He laid his head back and looked to the side as he felt the stomps of his large lover walking around this blimp sized stomach. He saw her belly arrive seconds before her tits which arrived seconds before her body. The strength granted to her by his cum previously was doing wonders for her mobility. He stared at the giant stomach before him, and the tits on top and he knew exactly what she had done.

“I didn’t waste a drop.” Natalie said proudly.

They both watched as her breasts started to bulge and pulsate.

“I hope they get nice and big for you, Norm. I want you bigger.”

Chapter 9

Natalie did get bigger, much bigger. Her breasts were already gargantuan in the relativity to her own body but now they burst forward with a huge surge. Despite his large size Norm's head was in danger of being crushed by the swelling breasts before him. Spilling over her body and crashing into the floor they did not slow in their expansion, pressing up against walls of buildings before they overpowered the structures around Natalie. The giant mass of breast flesh was now so large that Natalie was easily able to rest her whole body on them. Spreading out before her and Norm, her boobs were fast approaching the size of Norm's titanic gut.

Natalie's head was flung back, her moans filling the air around them both, Norm's cock was still hard, he managed to sit himself up, his stomach crushing two buildings with its massive size, his cock chopping another in half with the swift motion.

"You are so big Nat..." Norm said dreamily.

"All for..." She paused to let out a moan. "For you..."

Her boobs finally stopped growing, their diameter was around 80 feet. Norm's large hand reached to touch them, and he was shocked to feel that they were taut, there was next to no softness in them. He knew what that meant.

Milk.

His arousal started to take over and he moved his huge cock and buried it between Natalie's boobs. She wrapped her arms around its immense girth and started frantically rubbing its length. Thanks to both their huge sizes, Norm was able to fuck her tits and suck her nipples at the same time. Draining her boobs at a rapid pace, his cock was also being milked. The two fucked like this for hours, the amount of milk within Natalie was enough to feed a large town for a week. That meant nothing to the swelling Norm. Over the course of his feeding, his stomach just continued to swell, it was pushing forward and advancing towards the remaining uncrushed buildings. It wasn't long before his stomach was making him immobile, the full dome sloshing from each slight movement he made, to the residents below they only saw a huge gut pulsating and bulging with each passing second.

Finally he was done drinking, his pent up release was imminent now that he had finished his feast.

Natalie had been rubbing his rod the whole time, untiring, the giant woman yearned to please Norm, he was her entire world at this point. During his suckling she had drastically shrunk, her breasts shrinking due to their lack of milk meant that she was still insanely huge but just softer and mobile once more. She stood up and moved herself back from Norm so that her tits were now able to fuck the end of his cock and she could tease the tip.

Norm's groans grew louder, he was fast approaching another climax.

"I'm... I'm going to cum!" He screamed, his voice echoing throughout the city, the homes near him that hadn't been crushed now had their windows blown out.

With a mighty eruption his cock started to rain cum down on the city. It was far too much for Natalie to attempt to consume although she did manage to catch some as the rest fired over the town. Each spurt fired landed with a splat on buildings facing the two lovers, the impact was enough to cause some structural damage for those who were caught in the blast, they found themselves afflicted similarly to Natalie.

They grew.

His cum was potent enough to cause women and men alike to grow. The men would grow taller, their bodies getting chunkier and a bit more muscly, they appeared like giants to their regular peers, finishing around 10-15 feet tall with large beer guts, still dwarfed by Norm and his now growing body.

Norm watched on with glee as he saw the inhabitants of the city starting to grow too. It filled him with a sense of pride, he was the cause for their growth, he watched the men grow and revelled in the power he had, patting his turgid stomach.

Still the biggest.

His belly was slowly shrinking and again he found himself growing taller, he wrapped his hands around Natalie and picked her up, not wanting to hurt her with the expansion he was now going through. He looked back at the impact site of his cum and saw the women too who were also affected. They had found themselves growing similar to the men in height, but they had more to deal with. Their boobs grew, massive protruding breasts hanging off their larger torso, even the flat chested ones, now blessed with boobs as large as cars. Some were unable to stand thanks to their explosive growth. Norm felt his cock twinge at the sight. There was something else though, he wasn't able to say for sure but he noticed they also grew round taut bellies, each of them looking like they were swollen with multiple children. Norm's children.

He wasn't able to linger on the thought for much longer, they were disappearing from sight as he grew and grew. His previous 100 ft seeming meagre compared to his 200 ft body, and still going. Natalie was also growing from the small amounts of cum she was able to catch and swallow, she barely passed 50 ft whilst Norm was fast approaching the 250 mark. Proportionally his belly was now much smaller on his body, his cock had also grown, resembling a skyscraper at this point, it rested on the floor, even though his legs were still shooting his body upwards.

For the first time he noticed the military presence which had formed a perimeter around the city, he laughed at the tiny army toys which had spent so long trying to see how to best contain this situation only to find the problem was only growing.

"So big... They can't stop me... They can't stop us..." He looked at his lover and planted his massive lips on her boobs.

"Nobody can stop us, Norm. This world is ours."

The cycle continued, Norm and Natalie continued to cause each other untold levels of pleasure and both continued to grow, despite his cum making large portions of the population grow and turn into giants, they were nothing compared to himself and Natalie. They were insignificant, meaningless and tiny. Natalie managed to grow about half the size of Norm, but she was never able to keep up as he surged larger and larger day after day.

Looking down at the shrinking cities below, Norm laughed to himself.

“Norm... You are so big...” Natalie said, dazed from her orgasm moments prior. “How much bigger do you think we can get?”

Norm turned to his lover, “You can never be too big, Nat.”
