CherryPop Reads: At The Bus Stop: Part 2 - Written by SGA

[Narrator]

After meeting her at the bus stop, Colin began to notice Cara growing day by day. However, it seems like this was only an attempt to catch Colin's attention by Cara, who was now holding him up over the city in her palm, about four times his own height, smiling at him.

[Cara]

Now then, there was something else I wanted to try.

[Colin]

What's that?

[Cara]

Well, what else happens in those audiobooks?

[Narrator]

Cara and Colin both listened to giantess fetish audiobooks from the same website. It was why she approached him in the first place. Colin thought back to them now.

[Colin]

Well, sometimes they... you don't mean?!

[Cara]

Yeah, I do! Let's see if it's possible.

Cara eyed her breasts keenly, and concentrated even more than before. After a moment, her breasts began to grow and spread out in front of her. Colin watched as they surged larger over and over. At her current height, he realised that they were almost as big as he was, yet still she pushed them even bigger, gaining at least a couple of cup sizes, before she stopped growing them.

[Cara]

Okay, that works then! And that's probably enough for now, they're already pretty heavy. Though, I suppose if I make my bones and muscles stronger with my next growth, I'll be able to make them bigger.

[Colin]

R-Right. You're sure an expert, huh?

[Cara]

Isn't that common sense?

[Colin]

I mean I suppose, just... I don't know, I'm not a woman.

[Cara]

Yeah, of course not. You wouldn't look as cute if you were.

[Colin]

Huh...?

[Narrator]

It was Cara's turn to let her face flush red. She hadn't meant to let that slip.

[Cara]

N-N-Nothing!

[Colin]

O-Okay...

[Narrator]

There was another awkward pause, where Colin could feel her squeezing him involuntarily. After a moment, she broke the silence.

[Cara]

Hey, Colin... uh... Can I ask you something...?

[Colin]

Y-Yeah... what's up?

[Narrator]

Colin's heartbeat rose, even though he had no idea what she was about to say.

[Cara]

Are you... seeing anyone at the moment?

[Colin]

N-No... why do you ask?

[Cara]

Well... w-w-would you ever c-c-c-consider, Uh, s-s-seeeing... m-me?

[Colin]

Y-You? R-Really?..O-Of course! I'd be delighted too!

[Narrator]

She visibly relaxed at his positive response. It seemed like she'd been unsure of that for a while, like a weight had been lifted from her shoulders.

[Colin]

You're amazing! You're really nice, and you're into giantess stuff, and you're really pretty, what more could I ask for?

[Narrator]

The red returned to her face after this unexpected slew of compliments.

[Cara]

D-Did you really just say all that... about me?..... Wooow....

[Narrator]

There was another bashful pause, until Cara said...

[Cara]

Well, I suppose there's nothing else to do but... m

[Cara]

[Narrator]

And she began to rise up again. From her hand, Colin could really see all the buildings around sink down as she got bigger and bigger. The bus stop where they had met was becoming increasingly small beneath her, as Colin found himself being held higher and higher up off the ground. He could feel her hand extending and growing around him with each surge she took. She grinned at him.

[Cara]

m H-How's this...?

[Colin]

You're getting even more beautiful the more you grow, Cara.

[Cara]

m How can you compliment me so honestly m like that.... It's so embarrassing! m

[Cara]

[Narrator]

For a moment, her surges seemed to speed up, each one surging her massively taller, before she calmed down and resumed her steady regular surges, but even still she was still gaining altitude at a pretty good pace. She was almost as tall as the surrounding office buildings already, and Colin continued to stare as her swelling continued.

[Colin]

Well... sorry, it's just my honest opinion.

[Cara]

I know, I can tell m that's why it's so embarrassing! m I didn't think anyone would ever think that m about me...

[Narrator]

At that point, Cara stopped growing, a head taller than the surrounding buildings.

[Cara]

Anyway, let's put you down before I grow my breasts some more.

[Colin]

O-Okay.

[Narrator]

Cara placed him on the roof of one of the office buildings, which gave him a great view of the spectacle.

[Cara]

Here goes... m

[Narrator]

Once again, her breasts grew out in front of her. They were already pretty high on the cup scale, and growing bigger by the second. Cara placed her hands up against them as they swelled out, feeling the soft tit-flesh grow between her fingers. After they seemed to be so huge as to be too big for the cup scale, Cara stopped them swelling.

[Cara]

Woah... Okay, let's stop there...

[Narrator]

She paused for a moment to gather herself, before continuing...

[Cara]

And now... m I should get taller! m

[Cara]

[Narrator]

This she did. Colin watched on from the rooftop as the gigantic girl got even bigger still. She pushed herself taller and taller, enjoying the pleasurable sensation as her body swelled bigger. As she grew, more and more of her body became visible above the building Colin was standing on. The speed was incredible, and she'd almost doubled her previous height in just the first minute, but she didn't make any effort to stop.

[Colin]

You're looking great Cara! Keep growing!

[Cara]

m Oh, I will!

[Cara]

[Narrator]

Her growth continued with a vengeance. She just swelled and swelled and swelled bigger. She was already twice as tall as the surrounding buildings, but there didn't seem to be a single building in the entire city that was taller than her now. She was the biggest thing in the whole city, and she just kept getting even bigger. Her still gigantic breasts hung down her front, now the size of office buildings themselves. Still, she pushed herself bigger and bigger, making an effort to show her new boyfriend just how big she could get. After a long while, when the highest buildings in the entire city were down level with her knees, she stopped growing.

[Cara]

I'm just gonna catch my breath...

[Narrator]

Colin's attention was caught by a honking noise from the street below. His regular bus was stuck behind one of Cara's huge feet, which was blocking the entire road. But, he didn't mind. He wasn't going to take it today. He was staying right here with her. Turning his face back up, he saw Cara's giant eyes staring down at him.

[Cara]

I'm gonna pick you up again, Colin!

[Colin]

Okay! Be careful!

[Narrator]

Once more her palm extended down towards Colin, though now he was only the size of a pea in comparison to it. Still, as gently as she could, she grabbed him and let him stand up on her palm.

[Cara]

Okay, don't fall off, you're pretty high up now.

[Colin]

Whoaa..... This is incredible.

[Narrator]

Colin admired the scale of just her hand, and then the scale of the girl herself beyond it. Enormous just didn't do her justice.

[Cara]

I know, right? It's like those audiobooks, but I think you'll agree they're nowhere near as impressive as it is in real life. Also, sorry you missed your bus.

[Colin]

Nah, it's alright. I'm happy here with you.

[Cara]

Well, in that case... I could always walk you home?

[Colin]

It'd be a long walk.

[Cara]

I have long legs.

[Colin]

Fair point. Okay, sure, then we can continue tomorrow.

[Cara]

After work?

[Colin]

Sure, if you like, or in the morning.

[Cara]

Well, I'm not exactly able to fit in the college buildings at this point, so I've got a free schedule for the foreseeable future. Anyway, hold still, I'll put you somewhere safe to carry you.

[Narrator]

Colin found himself being moved closer and closer to her enormous chest. Soon, her palm began to tip, and Colin found himself sliding down her smooth skin until he landed not uncomfortably atop one of her gigantic tits.

[Cara]

There you are! Now, off we go! You're gonna have to direct me.

[Colin]

Oh, no problem. It's over there, towards the outskirts.

[Narrator]

He wasn't sure if Cara could make out his pointing given the difference in scale, but she started walking nonetheless, so he assumed she had. Being on her breast while she walked along was sort of like being on a boat, Colin found, it swayed gently back and forth and up and down as she walked along. Her long legs did shorten the walk quite considerably as she'd predicted, and in only a few short minutes, he found himself hundreds of feet above his home.

[Colin]

This is it, down below us.

[Cara]

Okay, I'll put you down. Hold still!

[Narrator]

Colin was grabbed off of Cara's breast, and gently dropped off back on the ground. He glanced up once again at his new giant girlfriend.

[Colin]

Thinking about it, are we boyfriend and girlfriend now?

[Cara]

...Yeah, I guess we are? Sweet!

[Colin]

Okay, so what happens now?

[Cara]

Well, it's getting late now, so how about I let you get some rest, and then tomorrow is saturday... we could go on our first date?

[Colin]

S-Sure! I'd love that!

[Cara]

Great! In that case, I'll see you then!

[Colin]

Sure! See you!

[Narrator]

And away she wandered down the road, the ground-shaking thumps disappearing into the distance. After watching her walk off, Colin went inside and settled down to bed. Tomorrow was going to be a very big day!
