Hypnosis study session

Marco is back at Jessica's home to help her study history. There is a test two days from now. While Jessica is a good student when it comes to math or languages she is horrible at memorizing dates or facts. The two have been childhood friends for a long time... though Marco secretly has a crush on Jessica. Can Marco help her put enough knowledge in her head to ace said test? Or is he putting something else in there?

PS: Trying out a new format with this comic. It's 720x1280, which should probably be better suited for a smart phone display.

In which year was the declaration of independence published?

1766!

Now you are just guessing numbers! You are ten years off!

She's so cute!

1756!

NO!
It's 1776!

I still don't get it!
How you can be
this good at math
but not remember
a single date!

That's like
apples and bananas! No relation!

Damn!
I'm never gonna make
that test...

Hey!
You said you
were studying
hypnosis!

Can't you just
hypnotize me
and make me
remember all
those facts?

That's not
how it works...
I mean...

I doubt this will work, but I need a break from studying!

... but we can try...

Really? I mean great!

Are you sure? I mean you will be under and...

Oh please! I've known you for years! I trust you! What do I have to do?

For starters, just sit back and try to relax.

I'm gonna swing this watch from side to side. Please follow it with your eyes.

Okay.

No more speaking. Just relax and listen to my voice.

Listen to
my voice.

Let your mind drift.

You feel
safe.

You feel
relaxed.

Let all your thoughts and worries go.

There is just my voice.

Listen to
my voice.

My voice
becomes
your mind.

gulp
Jessica, can you hear
me?

I can hear
you.

Will you
do as I say?

Your voice
is my mind. I will do what
my mind
says.

I'll spread
my legs for
you.

Spread
your legs
for me.

Holy shit!
It's really
working!
Nice panties!

I will obey.

When I snap my fingers there is one task, I need you to do...

I understand.

On three you'll open your eyes and do said task but remain in a deep trance. Do you understand?

1
2
3!

Oh, Jessica!
You don't know
how often I've dreamed about
this.

lick

naorG

slurp

A little while and one task later...

Forget...
everything.

You will forget that
we tried hypnosis
and everything that happened during
your trance.

Alright.
Jessica, when I
snap my fingers
you will snap
out of your trance.

SNAP

ding
ding

Urgh!

Err.. Are you okay, Jessica?

Yeah, sorry. All of a sudden, I had this weird taste in my mouth.

But it's fine now. Gulped it all done!

So... I wanted to ask. Could you maybe hypnotize me to memorize dates for the exam?

Sorry, Jessica. It does not work that way. Sometimes there is no easy way. Sometimes you just have to put the work in to get what you want.

The End

Thank you for reading!
