

@GrayBeast

Name:	Hunter's Shiv
Rare (one of a kind)	Worth: 500 GP
	This spoon was forged by master craftsmen who specialized in enchanted spoons. This spoon is one of a kind in a set that has been scattered across the lands by treasure hunters and collectors. Requires attunement This spoon is depicted with a skull and bone pointing down to the dip of the spoon. In the middle of the dip, there seems to be a reticle symbol. This spoon was meant to act as more of a weapon than tool, particularly for hunters. This spoon can be used as a dart or dagger (1d4 piercing) should the shiv land a hit it will remain in the target and cast Hunter's Mark on the target without expending a spell slot. Should the shiv be removed from the target or the owner recast Hunter's Mark the spoon will be disabled till it lands the next attack. While the spoon is active, you cannot use your bonus action to move Hunter's Mark to a new target. To remove the shiv, the target must use their action to roll a medical check (DC = 8 + Dex + Prof. if proficient in daggers)
