A man in a white lab coat is shown from the chest up. He is wearing a white mask that covers his entire face, with a simple red smile and closed eyes drawn on it. His hair is a messy, scribbled red. He is holding a clear plastic water bottle with a blue cap and a blue label that has the Chinese characters '水' (water) on it. A speech bubble is positioned to the left of his head.

"Alright.. Let's test it out."

A 3D-rendered scene of a courtroom. In the foreground, a judge's bench is partially visible, featuring two large, light-brown wooden backrests with vertical slats. Behind the bench, a witness stand is positioned, consisting of several vertical, dark red slats. To the right of the witness stand, a gavel rests on a small, dark grey stand. The background shows a light-colored wall with a small, glowing lantern and a whiteboard. The ceiling is a light, textured surface.

A woman with long, light-colored hair is shown from the waist down, wearing a white pleated skirt with vertical blue stripes. She has a black smartwatch with a white face on her left wrist. The background is a simple, light-colored floor and wall.

A close-up illustration of a blonde anime-style girl with her hair in a bun. She is wearing a white short-sleeved shirt and a green lanyard with a white ID badge. The badge has a logo and the text 'ASYDOS' and 'OFFICIAL # 11111'. She has a gentle expression and is looking slightly to the side. The background is a soft-focus indoor setting with a window and a wooden structure.
