Intro:
A C F G A C F E
Verse:
I don't need to be a global citizen
Because I'm blessed by nationality
I'm a member of a growing populace
               G
We enforced our popularity
There are things that seem to pull us under and
There are things that drag us down
But there's a power and a vital presence
That's lurking all around
Chorus:
            F
A C
We've got the american jesus
A C F G
See him on the interstate
A C D F
We've got the american jesus
              G
He helped build the president's estate
Intro Riff
Verse 2:
                  С
I feel sorry for the earth's population
'Cuz so few live in the USA
At least the foreigners can copy our morality
                G
They can visit but they cannot stay
              С
Only precious few can garner our prosperity
It makes us walk with renewed confidence
               C
We've got a place to go when we die
```

```
And the architecht resides right here
Chorus:
A C
           F
We've got the american jesus
A C F G
Bolstering national faith
A C D
We've got the american jesus
A G F
                                \mathbf{E}
Overwhelming millions every day
Bridge: A C F G (2x)
He's the farmer's barren fields
  C
The force the army wields
The expression in the faces of the starving millions
The power of the man
  С
He's the fuel that drives the clan
  F
\ensuremath{\mbox{\sc He's}} the motive and the conscience of the murderer
  A
He's the preacher on tv
 C
The false sincerity
        F
The form letter that's written by the big computers
He's the nuclear bombs
    C
And the kids with no moms
And I'm fearful that he's inside me
Chorus:
A C
           F
We've got the american jesus
A C F G
See him on the interstate
