

Bio Story 04:

for ViviDaze

by Miranda Stills

Gidget Personality: Quiet and not wanting to admit how conflicted she feels about liking girls but enjoying the sight of a big dick.

Story:

It was about a week after the presentation and Silas was bemoaning the lack of female attention he'd been getting lately. He'd checked on Winter and Bella, still 'two peas in a pod' as it were.

It had led him down a bit of a rabbit hole, trying to figure out why they hadn't separated where as he'd quickly run out of magical oomph to keep Winter his cock, and realized it was more of a refueling thing, that Bella was inadvertently keeping Winter stimulated.

He'd brought the theory to the duo, but they'd blown him off, stating that it was more likely that they were just in love and that's why they hadn't separated... and had no intentions of it, and unless he was interested in being on the receiving end of butt sex...

Next he'd gone back to his project partners, Kara and Jess, the undisputed butt queen's of the campus.

Not who had the best butt, Bella vehemently said she had the best, and he'd heard about a new girl named Gidget who was a bit of a pear shaped shorty, but apparently had an amazing ass, but that's not what the two had meant. Apparently they had become well known for their lack of desire for vaginal sex and had simply rode every dick they could find, plugging up their back door as hard and often as they could.

And while they both agreed (a rarity) that Silas had indeed an amazing dick, they said it was like having steak. "Great, but not for every meal." Leaving him a bit high and dry.

He'd even gone so far as to check on Tori and Mona, despite having given them room as they clearly were more in to fish than any other 'white meat'. He was somewhat surprised, given his track record of Winter/Bella and Kara/Jess, to find the two had gone back to their normal lives, and bodies, for the most part after the shenanigans.

Tori had waved him off, stating she had no idea where Mona had scooted off to, and to try the campus art building.

Which began its own rabbit hole for Silas, as in asking around, he'd discovered that Mona was often seen there, despite not being an art major or even having an art course this semester, and often in the evening only.

Deciding some late night escapades wouldn't be a bad thing, he found himself following the unaware busty short stack of Mona as she snuck into the art building at just past midnight.

Imagine his surprise upon finding Mona with a big hipped, plump assed woman just as short, and just as cute, as the pale skinned top heavy woman. The two women looked like a yin yang symbol, the tan skinned brunette's ass filling most of the bench they were sitting on, while from the waist up was filled nearly entirely by the pale skinned raven haired bisexual beauty.

Both women both stopped the moment Silas stepped around the corner, shocked in different ways at the man's approach. For her part, Mona licked her lips, her eyes leaving Silas face the moment she realized who the intruder was, and jumping to what she knew he was packing in those jeans.

The other woman simply looked at him with large eyes, her arms tight around her partner's waist. "M-Mona, who's this?"

"Remember that huge, wonderful cock I had when we first started having fun?" Mona reached out and stroked Silas through his denim.

“Of course!” The other woman responded, before blushing a bright red, a lovely look against her tan cheeks.

“Well, this is Silas, the bio-mage who made that happen, and it was based on the monster right here.” Mona delicately patted it before looking up for permission, and jerking down the zipper and letting the fat, thick, HARD cock flop out into the open air, drawing a gasp from her lover.

“And since she so intimately knows me,” Silas gestured to the cock that even at that moment, Mona was reaching out to heft and stroke with her lover’s help, “what can I call you?”

“Gidget,” she blushed cutely again, before leaning forward and giving the head of his cock a swirling lick.

“Hey Gidget, that’s mine.” Mona elbowed her lover out of the way and began sucking that wonderful cock, Silas moaning at her firm hands, and that push of soft breasts against his thighs.

Silas didn’t wait a single moment, pulling Gidget up and pulling her into a tight kiss, squeezing her incredible ass, the undisputed best ass on campus now that he held it in his hands. He pulled her skirt aside, letting it pool at her feet so he could feel that ass in his own two hands, skin to skin.

The two slowly stripped each other, as Mona stripped herself, continuing to deepthroat his cock like the big titted cock sucker she was. She worked every inch of it, taking it deep, DEEP into her throat, her tongue licking his balls as he felt every inch of her wonderful, wet mouth.

“Oh Silas.” Gidget panted against his mouth, looking past her flat chest to her lover sucking Silas’ cock so well. “Please, I’ve got to feel this up my ass.”

“With pleasure, Gidget.” Silas carefully lowered her onto her back, Mona moving around and swinging her pale thighs over her tanned lover's head. Silas smirked, loving how quickly and eagerly the fat assed woman began licking her lover's pussy, an idea percolating in the back of his mind as he began to push his well greased cock up Gidget's ass.

Leaning forward, he began making out with Mona, memories of his time with her and Tori coming to him, cementing an idea he'd wanted to try then, mixing with the one he'd already begun to consider. The idea only spurred him on and began really pushing into Gidget, Mona moaning as she felt Gidget become even more frenzied with her tongue work, pushing the short busty goth over the edge quickly, and then again and again, knowing just how to dive that muff.

Silas didn't want to stop, he had an idea and he wanted to push it to the limit, and started not just fucking her ass, but pounding in and out of it, pushing more and more of his monster length of cock into Gidget's fantastic ass with each push.

Mona hit her limit, and fell backwards, twisting so that she landed on the bench face down. Silas would have laughed, tongued her brains out, eh Gidget? but he was just too busy fucking this amazing, asstastic slut.

Coming to the decision he wanted to really, truly see that ass, watch as it jiggled with every thrust, he flipped Gidget over and began truly pounding her, watching in wonder at how that ass jiggle with each and every pounding push of man meat.

Gidget for her part loved every moment of it, crowing it to the sky as she took every inch of his cock in loving worship, she scooted forward just enough to be between Mona's legs again, so she could start making out with Mona's plump, glistening pussy, giving Silas the last piece of the puzzle he needed to complete the image.

Silas began pushing Gidget more and more between Mona's legs until he pushed to shard that Gidget was pushed up INTO her lover, fusing their bodies. As Mona's legs melted into Gidgets upper body, Gidget's arms vanished upwards into Mona's shrinking ass. Soon there wasn't two women but a single, incredible hourglass that was everything that made Gidget's lower half, and Mona's top half, the perfect curvaceous woman.

Mona blinked awake, coming to during the fusion and then screaming through her nose at the orgasmic feeling as Gidget's head burst forth to the right of her own, their heads adjusting to evenly set on their shared shoulders. Their skin tones adjusted, so that their right side matched Gidget's deep tan, and their left perfectly paleing to Mona's gothic nearly iridescent.

For a moment, the two simply, carefully stood, admiring their form. Mona couldn't help but admire that she finally had not just an ass to write home about, but the best on campus, while Gidget couldn't help but heft one of the head sized breasts she'd so admired, and been more than a little envious her lover possessed, now shared between them, perfectly matching her skin tone, and as she looked, the one on her side even had her own wide areola that she'd been so used to on her original little boobies.

The two women turned as one, sharing a quick glance between the to be sure they were on the same page before looking Silas up and down, his cock still wet with cum and anal juices.

“I think Silas needs a thank you for giving us the body we’ve both been wanting since the moment we saw each other.” Mona smirked, Gidget blushing but nodding, her brown locks bobbing in the air.

“I can’t wait to use these big tits to show Silas just what a thankful girl can really do with a cock that big.”

“Have at it, ladies.” Silas grinned, gesturing at his thick length.

The two went to work quickly, Gidget at first licking it, then Mona, the two taking turns until his rod was clean, and slick with both their salivas, before rapping their large, mismatched but identically sized tits around his cock. Both hands held their breasts as they began really working his length, destroying what reserves of stamina and restraint Silas had in minutes.

‘Popped his top’ didn’t describe what happened, more like a volcano blowing its load, as he came all over their huge breasts and across their faces.

He was a bit surprised to find that despite sharing a body, the two women had very different reactions, Gidget loving the cum bath while Mona bemoaned how it had gotten into her dark locks. A moment later it switched, as Gidget made it clear she did not like the taste of cum, while Mona worshipfully, greedily lapped up every bit of it she could, cleaning their large breasts and her and her lover’s face in a way that kept Silas’ cock hard and ready.

“So ladies, liking your new form?”

“Loving it!” Mona enthused, Gidget quietly nodding. “How long can we keep it?”

“As long as you keep givign me titfucks like that, I’m happy to keep you two together. But what about classes?”

The two gave each other a speculative look before facing him again. “Look, it’s cute that you want to worry about us.”

“And having a guy care about what happens next is nice...” Gidget blushed demurely again.

“But would you please just fuck our pussy with that monster cock and shut your damn mouth?”

Not one to argue, he reached under both women’s arms and hefted them up as easily as he had lifted Mona or Gidget before, and to their delighted surprised, began stretching their mismatched, wonderful pussy with his cock, stretching them out and loving how different each side felt.

The women themselves moaned and shuddered completed differently, giving an extra spice he didn’t know he’d been missing from sex as they both reacted in their own way at the vaginal stretching by such a big cock.

He loved how Gidget bit her lip, trying to be the good girl who didn’t make any noise... and trying to keep a lid on it only made it that much louder, and how Mona let loose, cursing at him, demanding he fuck them harder, faster, to the right, to the left, like she was a driving instructor.

He couldn’t hold himself back and began kissing them all over, feasting on their lips, their cheeks, foreheads, and especially their breasts, sucking hard on their mismatched nipples. It took a lot of his strength, but he worked every inch of his cock into the women’s wonderful pussy, working himself to the best orgasm of the night yet.

Feeling the edge coming, he quickly switched to their ass, feeling his cock swell inside of them and wishing he had saved their ass for the next round, though later he would reflect that perhaps he didn't have another round in him anyway.

Instead he surprised by women by plunging balls deep into that amazing ass they now shared, and cumming over and over again. The cum filling their tight little belly until it looked pregnant, then bubbling down around his cock, but still he came until, with a look of dual surprise, less so on Mona's part than Gidget, cum erupted from both women's mouths and spurted from their noses.

He laid the women down and gave them a warm smile as he watched them pass out from the extreme fucking they'd just received, using their tits to clean his cock off before sliding his own jeans up.

Carefully putting a coat over their soft, pale/tan form, he chuckled at the image they made that some janitor was sure to find before morning classes and turned to leave, "you know, having them both like that... variety really is the best spice in life."
