Space Junk

Chapter One: The Abandoned Vessel

Space always seems so quiet. But only if they knew what lurks behind the stars.

And for a certain crew of space truckers. They're normal everyday routine of fairing cargo between the beta sector and the colony is about to change forever.

"Hey, Captain." The first mate said as she walked up to Deborah. "We found something interesting on our sensors. There might be a ship floating out there in the void."

Deborah turned away from her console and looked at the navigator. "Show me," she demanded.

That day had been uneventful. Both the crew and the cargo were loaded without any problems. It was still early afternoon when they came upon an empty vessel drifting through the void of space. Since it wasn't really a threat, they decided to take a look to see if it was salvageable.

"Beth, can you tell me who the ship belongs to?" Deborah asked her first mate. Beth nodded.

"This vessel is registered to the United Dominion Fleet under the name of Galaxy Prime. She has been out of service for eight years now?" Beth told her captain what the results were when they got closer to the ship using the scanners.

"Are there any life readings?"

"Negative. No life readings."

"Hmm. Is there radiation or anything hazardous?" Deborah asked. Beth shook her head.

"Nothing but dead silence. I have no idea why this ship is here, but it is definitely out of place for a Dominion vessel to be out here. What do you think we should do now?" Beth asked. Deborah shrugged.

She then turned on the comms to speak to the crew in the rest of the ship.

"May, Mike and James meet me at the docking station. I'll brief you when I get there," she told her crew mates.

A buzzing came back over comms, "Aye Aye, Cap."

Deborah sighed, "Beth you have control of the ship."

"Roger that, captain. I'll be on the usual frequency. I'll let you know if anything changes." Beth said as she sat in the captain's chair.

"You know. I'm getting too old for this space adventure crap." Deb muttered as she made her way to the door out of the command deck.

"So you're going to retire at the age of 45? Is that what you're saying?" Beth teased her friend.

Deborah just laughed, "You know I'm kidding, Beth. I just can't move around like I used to."

Beth chuckled, "Yeah, I guess you're right. Come on, let's go see if there's anything we can salvage."

Deborah nodded and walked out of the bridge. As soon as they entered the corridor, she could see the three other crew mates waiting by the hatchway. Once there, she stopped and waited until she saw the three others enter the corridor.

"Okay, I'm going to run down the story again," she began. "When we got closer to the ship, but our scanners still haven't picked up anything except for the fact that the ship is a United Dominion vessel, Corvette class. There is no sign of power and no signs of life. We did not want to approach too close because there's a chance we might disturb whatever happened here and cause more damage. But if there's a chance we salvage anything, we'll do the normal rates split amongst the crew." She paused for a second.

Mike spoke up, "Grabbing salvage off a Dominion ship? You're gutsy, boss."

"I am. So we'll suit up and do a space walk to explore the ship. I don't want any of us to take unnecessary risks, so I want to remind everyone that if something happens, I will be taking full responsibility."

"Understood, Captain. I won't let you down." Mike replied. James and May of the crew agreed with him.

Deborah stepped forward once they finished their briefing, "Let's get suited up. I hope we find some good stuff. May tell me if you notice anything mechanically wrong with the ship."

The engineer nodded to her captain.

They all nodded and headed off to the airlock.

Once inside, each person had to get into the suits. It took less than five minutes for them to finish getting ready as they were ready to begin the spacewalk.

"Beth, we're ready. Is the Sunray in position?" Deb asked over her helmet comms.

"Yes, I am Deb," Beth replied. "We're in position; we can go ahead and start our close range scan."

Deborah nodded. "Alright, let's get to work then people."

The hatch to the airlock that leads out to space opens up on the Sunray. Soon, the four crew mates step into the vacuum of space. They have to wear their spacesuits because of the vacuum.

Deborah could hear Beth's voice coming through her helmet, "Nothing new on the close range scanners. Everything is still normal, Captain."

"Roger that. Beginning our space walk." The Captain said.

While approaching the ship. Deborah could see the others were following behind her as they skimmed along the outer hull. After a few seconds, they came upon the airlock to the Dominion ship.

"May, can you open the door?" Deborah asked, "The auto controls are down right now."

May took the lead as she pressed the button on the control panel and attached one of her tools to the panel. A moment later, the airlock opened and they were able to enter what appeared to be a small airlock room.

"Looks like the life systems are down, captain. We're going to need to do a little work here to see if we can get them back up and running."

Deborah nodded at her engineer. "That's fine, May. Let's go ahead and start checking the system. Do me a favor and tell me if your tech finds anything else out of order."

"Roger, Cap."

May gave the captain a thumbs up.

After a short time, May returned to the captain's side again.

"It looks like everything is back up and working. But the Dominion ship is running on emergency power. So it's best to keep our suits on captain." May said.

Deborah nodded, "Good point. Well let's head to the bridge and see if there are any data logs on the computer. Mike, can you go and check if there's anything in there storage? James hang here at the airlock for now."

"Sure thing, Cap."

James stayed where he was, looking around the room by the airlock. He noticed a large cabinet that had several computers stored inside it. Curious, he walked over to it and pulled it out from the wall. The last thing he wanted to do was to break something so he made sure to pull gently.

Inside the cabinet, there were many hard drives and other items that looked like memory chips. Almost like micro SD cards.

He reached down and picked up one of the devices. He placed it between his fingers and examined it closely.

"Hey, Cap, what does this look like?" He asked.

Deborah got up from the console she was examining and walked over to the young man who had just found a clue. "I don't know, James. I think it might be some kind of data chip? But I never seen any that look like that."

James pulled another device out of the cabinet, "Okay, well then let's take a look at these together."

Over the comms May spoke up, "Captain I scanned the Nav Com and started on the ship's computer."

"Copy that, May."

Deborah looked back at James with curious expressions. "Alright, I think we're done here. James, bring those devices with you. May, I think James found some computers here by the airlock. Can you scan them and see if the Dominion ship has any data logs on them? Tell me if you find anything."

"Yes ma'am."

May comes back to where James and Deborah are and begins to run diagnostics on the computers while the captain and James examine the devices.

Within a few minutes, May tells the captain.

"Captain, the Dominion ship has no records. No matter how much I try to access the computers, they're all encrypted or damaged beyond repair."

"What do you make of these?" Deborah asked as she holds up the small SD drive devices that James found.

"That's funny? They look like data storage devices to me. They're too small to hold anything more than a few gigabytes of data though? No bodies uses these things anymore," May replied, "So whatever information they store, I'm guessing it's compressed somehow? Or they might be used as keys for something? But it's hard to tell without accessing them."

"Well, you're right. We'll have to do that later. I want to focus on finding anything valuable first. I don't want the Dominion breathing down our necks if they knew we were on their ship. And if those machines in the cabinet really do contain important information, I'd rather not damage them."

"Yeah, you're right. Let's keep moving."

As May helped the captain fix the broken power cables, the rest of the crew members continued their search.

After a moment Mike came in on the comms, he found something in the storage hold.

"Cap! There's a strange box back here. Looks like it's locked. Might be important."

"Roger that... May, any luck getting the ship in working order?"

"No ma'am. Nothing's working in the systems except for the life support and emergency lights. I don't think we can get her seaworthy without major repairs."

"Damn. And here I thought we could bring back a whole ship. Just are luck to find a ship and not be able to bring it home. Haah... Put the light on high in the storage room. I need to see what's inside."

"Doing so now."

"Mike, we'll be coming your way. It will take a minute to reach you." Deborah said over the comms.

"Aw. The Captain was worried about me. I'll always remember this day, captain." Mike flirted back.

"Pff! I'm two decades older than you kid." Deborah shook her head at her subordinate.

Mike responded back one more time, "Age is but a number Cap."

"..." Deborah wasn't going to continue with his little game.

"I wish he would flirt with me? Why does he only focus on you Deb?" May asked.

"Because I pay him his paycheck. Why would he be interested in a fat old hag like me May?"

"I don't know but he does it almost every day with you and I know he's only part time but you should have fun with him." May says with an eyebrow lifted.

"Don't encourage it May. Once we finished delivering our current job, Mike and James' contract with us will be completed. It will be up to them if they want to join us for another run." Deb told May.

"Haah... Yeah I know. I just like these two part timers more than the others we have had. They are saints compared to the rest of the jerks we have hired." May said.

With a click the lock turns and the hatch opens. The lighting is dim but enough to show an almost empty storage room where Mike and James were. Deborah and May were both holding flashlights, and as soon as they entered the room, they shut off their flashlights.

The light from the emergency lamps illuminated a large rectangular box, maybe four feet tall by three wide and deep.

James walked to the box and tried to lift it. "It's heavy!"

"I guess that means it's full of something valuable then." May said as she approached the box. She kneeled down and started examining its surface. She reached out with her hands and touched it, tracing the edges and seams. A few seconds passed and May stood back up.

"There's some slots here? I think those devices James found can go in these slots? You might want to check them out," May told the captain.

Deborah nodded. "Okay, let's give this a shot."

May grabbed one of the SD devices and started to insert them into each slot. One after another, until the last one was put into place. Once all four were inserted, May turned around and looked at the device again. It had changed shape slightly. In fact, the outer shell had separated itself and made way for a new layer of machinery.

"Captain? Do you see what's happening?" May asked.

"Yeah I can. Is everything alright?"

"Yes, just something about this thing is... different. I'm going to try and press it."

"Go ahead."

May pressed her fingertips against the top of the machine, which appeared to have been a screen once. She pushed it gently with her fingertips, and suddenly a holographic image popped up.

"What did you do?" James exclaimed.

"There is a program. I think if I solve the encryption it will unlock this case."

"Well, let's hope you're right. But if this thing kills me, I'm going to haunt you May." James said with a weary look.

"Pfft! You young kids don't know how to have fun. Just relax, I'll figure it out." May giggled as she clicked through the screens.

"You know I'm 29 right?" James retorted.

"Twenty nine years of age is so young. I remember being your age." May smiled. "Besides, there isn't anything wrong with having an older friend." She winked.

"Whatever..." James shook his head as he continued to watch May work.

"I like a status update, Beth." Deborah radioed in to her first mate.

"Still getting negative readings captain. Danielle and I are trying to figure out what happened to the crew. And we haven't come up with anything so far.." Beth replied over the comms.

"Okay, May is trying to open up a secured crate. Hopefully it won't be too long." The captain told Beth who was still on the ship's bridge.

Mike came back to where Deb, May and James after finishing his last sweep of the Dominion ship.

"Well I found nothing else on the ship. Did we figure out what's in the crate?" Mike asked the captain.

"Not quite yet, but May is working on it now. She has been working with me for 15 years and I think she can crack the encryption."

"Really? Well that's good news."

After ten minutes or so, May finally got the program to decrypt. A quick glance showed that there were still some things missing from the code. As May tried to press forward, she noticed that the box began to pulse and hum. Suddenly a bright flash of pink light came from the box.

"What's that? I can see?" May exclaimed.

Deborah was the first to regain her sight as she looked at Maya then back to her computer. She saw that the program had unlocked the box. Then suddenly the words 'ancient relic' appeared on her screen.

"Beth? Are you getting any readings? Anything on radiation?"

"Negative. Nothing." Beth replied.

"Okay... May, can you scan that thing to be sure? Beth said it's not emitting any radiation. Whatever it is, hopefully it's not harmful."

May took out her scanner and scanned the object. She then looked up to her captain. "Captain, it's harmless."

Before they moved closer to the open crate and noticed a crystal that was the size of a softball sitting in the middle of it.

"Captain, what do you want us to do with this?" Mike asked.

"Well it's the only thing of value? Let's grab it and head back to the Sunray. If anyone asks, we'll say that the ship crashed and we picked up a few pieces of debris."

"Roger that!"

Chapter Two: What is it?

Back aboard the Sunray, the entire crew sat down in the briefing room with the pink glowing crystal ball.

"Let's hear your findings, May." Deborah said.

"Ah, yes. Well, the object emits no radiation and appears to be completely harmless. It's made of a rock-like material, but its chemical composition does not match any known rocks." May said while looking at her tablet.

"Hmm. Danielle, do you have any medical readings on this thing?" Deb asked her 40 old medical officer.

Danielle shook her head.

"I don't either, captain." Danielle replied.

The crew remained silent for a moment, waiting for the captain to speak. Finally, she did.

"Well it's going to be annoying if this thing is nothing but a paper weight?" Deborah said.

"I don't know if I call it a paper weight? It's more of a night light if you ask me." Mike said with a chuckle.

Deborah nodded. "Alright, that's enough joking around. We need to go back to work. Beth we need to go over the itinerary again, make sure that everything is perfect. Everyone else, get to it."

As soon as Deborah left, the rest of them went about their daily duties.

As they left the pink crystal sitting on the table in the conference room.

As the crew went through their work routine. James was helping May in the engine room.

"So you need me to hold this here, May? Or should I just leave it and let you take care of it?" James asked.

May turned to look at him. "You know what, James. You're right. This is my department and I will handle it myself. Get out of my way."

James laughed and walked away.

May is a 39 year old engineer of the Sunray. She looked like a normal woman, except her face had a few wrinkles here and there. Her skin was clear, but slightly sun damaged. She has long graying black hair, tied in a bun behind her head. She had dark brown eyes and is 5'2 tall. She would always flirt with the hired part time hands that the captain brings on for each cargo trip. She knew that they weren't attracted to her but she enjoyed it anyway. But for some reason James was drawn to her right now. As he watched her, May began to smile at him and then winked.

She was wearing a yellow jumpsuit that was covered with grease stains from all her years of work. In the middle of her back, she wore a leather belt that held her tools and electronics. A couple times she adjusted her belt by hooking her fingers under it and pulling it up and down. The belt was covering her butt, but James could clearly see that she had a small cute ass.

'Jeez! The kid is sticking around huh?' May thought to herself. 'Maybe I should have taken him upstairs to the sleeping quarters.'

May wiped her forehead with her sleeve and sighed, still smiling.

Meanwhile, Beth was preparing food in the galley. She made a salad and brought it out to the conference room. As she sat down next to the captain, she noticed that the crew member who usually occupied the seat was gone.

"Hey, Beth? Where did Mike go? We need to finalize the plan for tomorrow."

Beth shrugged her shoulders. "He's probably working on something in his room. Why don't we just wait until he's ready?"

Deborah frowned and said, "I'm sorry if I sound rude, Beth. You don't know how much I rely on Mike. I know he's a contract worker and he's done after this trip but..."

Beth smiled. "Don't worry about it. I'll tell him to meet us in the conference room when he gets here. If you want I can take over while you talk to him."

Deborah nodded and said, "Yes, please do. I'll go look for him."

As Deborah went off, Beth grabbed a fork and took a bite of her salad. After a moment she started feeling dizzy and nauseous. Not knowing why, "Huh? Maybe my period is going to start? I'm only in my late thirties, so maybe I'm getting sick?... no, that's not possible. I ate lunch an hour ago, it's too soon for me to get sick."

The captain was able to contact Mike over the comms and asked him to meet her at her quarters.

Deborah was feeling better than she normally would. Like her knees weren't hurting as much which surprised her knowing that she was overweight. She knew she was getting older, but she was hoping that she could hold off the pain until she could retire in 10 years. While looking through some reports from the last few months, she heard a knock at the door.

Deborah put away her reports and called out, "Come in!"

Mike opened the door. "Hi, Deborah. What's up?"

Deborah looked at him and smiled. She really liked the young man's looks. His tall and slender body, his strong jaw and handsome face. She was starting to feel something that she hasn't felt in years. "N-Nothing much, Mike. Just making sure everyone was accounted for."

'God, what's up with me? I know May likes it when I contract out younger men. But I never thought I would be the one to fall for someone?' Deborah wondered, "Anyway, if you're done with your duties, we should decide on what route to take tomorrow."

Mike nodded his head and said, "All right. Let's all gather in the conference room then."

"N-No! We can figure it out here. If you like? It's easier for me that way," Deborah stammered out. She didn't know why but her blue jumpsuit started to feel a little beggar to her, as if her skin was shrinking.

"Okay, let's sit down then."

Once they were seated in the captain's room, Deborah began talking. "So, we have five more days left on this trip. The next planet we need to pick up is Gamma Sector Three, and that's almost ten hours away. So it might be best to just stay there and refuel, restock supplies. Then move on to the station in Gamma Sector Two.

"I don't want us to start our next journey exhausted and weak. Especially since there's a chance that we will be fighting off pirates."

As Deborah was pointing out the route to Mike. Her hair started getting into eyes, so she decided to pull out her hair tie and remove it. As she did, her hand touched the back of Mike's neck and she felt warm to her core.

This alarmed her. 'What's wrong with me? Why am I acting like this?' She pulled her hands away and put the hair tie on her desk.

"Are you okay, Deb?" Mike asked after watching her reaction.

Deborah shrugged and said, "Yeah. Don't worry about it."

"You're sweating. Did you overheat or something?" Mike asked again. He noticed how flushed she was and that her breathing sounded odd.

When she didn't respond, he quickly stood up and took her hand. "Debbie. Are you alright? You look like you have a fever."

As soon as his arm wrapped around hers, a sudden shock went through Deborah's spine and she found herself sitting at the table.

"W-Whoa! What...what happened to me?" She gasped out, "Why am I like this? What's happening to my body? This is not normal!"

"It's okay. Let me take you to Danielle" Mike said as he helped the captain stand up.

Mike helped the captain walk out of the captain's room and down the hall to the medical bay. Once they got there, the doctor came out and rushed them inside. As soon as the door closed, Danielle looked at the captain and said, "Deborah, what's going on?"

After some time, the captain was able to speak again. "Doctor! I don't know? Please tell me what's wrong with me? It feels like something is changing in my body."

Danielle looked at the captain and took her to the medical bay bed. There, she laid the captain down and started examining her. After a few minutes, the doctor let out a sigh and said, "Hmm? It seems you're going through menopause?"

Deborah tried to laugh but winced instead, "Menopause? I already went through that when I was 39?"

"I don't understand, either," Danielle said. "But apparently, you're having another? And the odd thing is...it seemed to have reversed?"

"Reversed? How can that be?" The captain asked. "What are you saying doc? Explain yourself."

"That's exactly what I'm trying to do, Captain. First off, your menopausal symptoms should have been gone years ago. Most women experience hot flashes, night sweats and mood swings for most of their lives until they go into early menopause. But suddenly, all those things disappeared. Your body is producing hormones it shouldn't anymore. It's like your body's getting younger?"

"Can't be right. Can it? These changes are unnatural."

"Well, the good news is that the changes aren't permanent. If we can get rid of whatever is causing these unusual hormonal surges, then everything will return to normal. We'll need to run some tests and see if we can figure out what's going on."

"How long is this supposed to take?" The captain asked. She knew that she could use a solution sooner rather than later.

"I'm not sure. I know that we have to run several tests before we can find out what's happening. We'll also need to try and get an accurate read on how much time we have left."

"What kind of tests?"

"CTE scans and hormone profiles. It will probably take a couple hours tops? We just gotta wait for the lab tech programs to boot up. Oh! And I think we should run a DNA test, too." Danielle said with an unusual amount of enthusiasm for the 40-year-old doctor.

'Hmmm? I don't remember the doctor acting like this when I first met her? I didn't know she could be this cute?' Mike thought as he waited in the waiting room.

"Hey Captain, should I go do something while you're going through your test? I mean, there's nothing else to do on this ship." Mike said. His jumpsuit looked like it wasn't fitting him that well. With his unusual amount of muscle growth over the last few hours, his clothes were becoming snug.

"No, sit tight. I want you to stay with me while we're waiting," said the Captain.

Mike nodded and turned to face the wall. 'Does the captain look younger? Nah! It's just my imagination. Maybe she's got a bad case of the hiccups,' Mike thought.

Chapter Three: The Engineer and The First Mate Feel Young Again

Meanwhile, back in engineering. May was starting to feel strange about the way her body felt. "I swear, I feel like I'm shrinking but growing too?" May was sitting at her console, her hands resting on either side of her console, which was now smaller than it once was. May wasn't a pretty woman when she was growing up because her stout figure gave her wide shoulders and narrow hips. Not the most flattering profile which she knew about but there was nothing she could do about it.

'Focus May. I need to finish my ship diagnostic before we reach our destination.' May kept herself from getting distracted by all the strange feelings she was having. "Okay, let's see... I'm detecting a high level of copper in all the parts of this ship that we're using."

May was busy typing away at her without her noticing her body changing as the once broad shoulders narrowed and thick waist became more slender, her breasts became a little bigger and her ass rounder. She was starting to look more feminine than she ever looked before.

"Yes!" May yelled suddenly. "We're almost done! I'm starting to get hungry. I wonder if James would like to eat with me?" May quickly exited her diagnostic program and stood up, causing her breasts to bounce more than she was used to.

"Man, running that program always takes forever," May mumbled under her breath as she headed out of engineering. "Hey James, you want to grab some lunch?"

"Sure."

As May walked down the corridor towards the mess hall she noticed how much her ass jiggled. She started to feel embarrassed but then remembered that it was only James who saw her.

'He knows what I look like anyway!' May thought to herself while watching beside him.

They both went into the mess hall. As soon as they entered they saw the First Mate Beth sitting by herself eating another salad.

"Hey May! You finished quicker than I thought?" Beth said to her.

"Yeah," May replied. "I think I have everything sorted out here so I figured I'd grab a bite myself. Do you want something?"

James offered, "I'll go with you."

James noticed Beth looked different than usual. She was the youngest out of the captain's crew. But she didn't look 36 anymore, she looked like she was in her mid 20s, and with her body seemed to have some A cup breasts under her jumpsuit. She used to be a twig. Her face was also fuller and her nose narrower. She had a wider set of hips and her legs were longer.

"Oh! Can you grab me another salad? They're really hitting the spot right now." Beth said while James grabbed the salads out of the refrigerator and headed to the corner where she was sitting.

After a few minutes of eating, May started to notice the changes happening to her. 'Hmm? My tits seem perkier,' May thought. The difference was subtle, but there was no doubt about it. She wore a bra when she worked on the ship, but with the added weight they felt heavier now. "Haah... I think my period is going to start soon?" May said to herself.

"You okay May?" Beth asked her.

"Huh? Oh yeah. I just noticed my body feeling off. I'm probably getting my period," May replied to her.

"Ah, I see," Beth replied with a knowing look. "Did you take your birth control pills this morning?"

"Uh... I'm 39 Beth, I don't need to take them. And I haven't taken them for years."

Beth smirked at her. "Well, honey, we're all going to have kids someday!" Beth exclaimed.

"Pfft! Only if I was as skinny as you Beth!" May joked.

But the joke wasn't lost on Beth. 'She always thinks she can't get a guy? I bet she's still got the hots for James.' Beth thought to herself as she looked at James who couldn't stop staring at May breasts. 'I wish I had breasts like May! Then I could have a man like James! Haah.' Beth thought to herself.

'Oh? James is teasing me? Let's see how he likes this!' May thought.

May looked over at James and smiled. "So, how long are you going to stare at my boobs?" May asked him.

"For as long as it takes," he replied.

"Huh!?" May wasn't expecting that response as her heart rate spiked up a notch.

"Yeah..." James said looking embarrassed, "I guess I like them more than I should."

James didn't know what came over him. He never thought he was attached to older women before today.

'W-What should I do? I've never been hit on before!' May thought nervously. She thought she was feeling excited but her body was also changing as well, with the gray in her black hair starting to disappear and grow out. She saw the strange growths developing on her thighs and hips. 'No! Why is my bra so tight? I hope it's just my imagination.' May thought she could tease James so he would get shy and nervous but it was the opposite.

"Haha. You look like a kid yourself James staring at me like that. How old are you anyway? " May tried teasing him again.

"Twenty nine." He replied.

May laughed at his response. "Whoa, well you have aged well then because you look like a 19 year old! Phew, it's hot in here. Can you turn down the heat?"

"Sure thing," James replied as he turned the thermostat lower.

"Thanks," May said. But May was lying about being hot. The temperature was suddenly colder, making her shiver. Her nipples were hardening up as well as Beth's.

"Why are you two acting so weirdly, like you're flirting all over the place?" Beth said.

May did a double take when she saw Beth's changes. Since she was paying so much attention to James she didn't notice that Beth looked like a 20 year old and her breasts were B cups now.

"I'm not sure. I don't think we are flirting," May said, looking at her own breasts as she wondered why they were growing larger and darker.

"It looks like you are too!" Beth commented. "Look at your nipples, they're getting hard. Look at mine!"

"That's normal for this kind of situation," May said, still wondering if everything was happening to her was real or if she was imagining things.

"Well, whatever it is, it's making you both horny," James said as he pulled both the girls on his lap.

"Hehe! James, I didn't know you had all these muscles under your jumpsuit?" Beth said, rubbing up against his crotch.

'This isn't my imagination! James looks like a teenager! What's going on?!' May thought.

"Let me help you with those hard nipples of yours," James said, kissing Beth's neck as he reached around her and May's back

"Oooohhh..." Beth moaned as she felt James' hand brush her breast through her t-shirt under her jumpsuit. "You're such a bad boy, touching your superior like this!"

"I do what I want." James replied.

Beth was moaning louder and louder. She couldn't believe how turned on she was by having James touch her there. She could feel her own pussy getting wetter and wetter.

Meanwhile, May was also feeling very aroused. She wanted to break away from James but couldn't when he came out of nowhere to give her a kiss. She found herself leaning closer to him as she slid her hands up and down his arms. She moaned softly into his mouth as she felt her own lips getting moist from the spit that they were sharing. If May could only see herself, she would be able to tell that her age has regressed down to a 25-year-old as her skin and black hair had returned to its natural state or better.

"James, let's go somewhere more private," Beth whispered into his ear. "I don't know why, but I need your cock right now."

"If you insist..." James said, sliding off his seat and carrying Beth and May in his arms.

"Eeeck! James how are you so strong?" May exclaimed, looking up at his face. She felt like she was being carried like a child as he had one arm under each girls' butt.

"I'm built for it," James said, moving down the hallway and out of sight. "Watch your head!"

"Hehe! You make me feel so young again James." Beth said, pressing her body against his as he walked.

"Where are we going, James?" May asked.

"My quarters," James answered simply as he began to move faster. Until he arrived at his room.

"Here? But...your quarters—" May said, breaking the silence.

"Don't worry about anything. Just relax and enjoy yourself. We have an entire day ahead of us!" James said, throwing open the door and tossing them onto the bed.

Beth's beautiful long blonde hair spilled out from under her cap as it grew from a short cut to mid length. Her breasts were no longer small and tight, but rather larger and rounder. The difference between her two forms was almost unbelievable as she felt younger than ever. A smile spread across her face, making her even more beautiful.

May was wearing a loose white shirt and a jumpsuit that no longer can stay zipped up to her growing chest. She felt her new body begin to change as her large breasts pushed up against the material of her shirt with her poor bra fighting to keep her growing breast in place. She had grown taller and her long black hair fell down over her shoulders halfway down her back.

Beth and May went through puberty, her skin became healthier and clearer. Beth's hair turned from brown to blonde. They both noticed their hips getting wider and their waist shrinking. Both felt a stirring sensation inside. The parts of their bodies that had been dormant began to awaken. It was as if something within them had come alive. Something different, yet familiar.

They both smiled, basking in their youthfulness.

'This can't be a dream right?' May thought to herself as she looked at the First Mate who looked like a 19 year old with her gorgeous blonde hair D cup breasts that forced open her jumpsuit, and some wide ass hips.

"Beth? Y-You look like a teenager! We should report-" Beth stuttered, just before she felt a hand slide down her thigh.

"James..." May mumbled, looking at James.

"It's okay Beth. I promise we won't tell anyone," James said as he reached around her waist and grabbed her other hip.

"Oh...yes..." Beth murmured, feeling a tingle in her loins as he slid his hands further up her thighs. "I haven't felt like this in years!"

Rip!

One by one, the changes began to take effect. First, Beth's breasts swelled and rose higher on her chest. At the same time, her hips widened and her butt grew rounder and firmer as the rear end of her jumpsuit ripped open.

"Damn..." Beth whispered as she felt the surge of desire run through her body. Then she felt a tingling sensation in her pussy.

As for May, her dark hair darkened to a deep jet black, her eyes changed from blue to a piercing emerald green. Her cheeks filled out and her face became more defined. She felt a stirring below, and tried to ignore it, but as the urge to masturbate grew, so did her need to satisfy her raging arousal as her jumpsuit gave her camel toe.

"Fuck me...fuck me hard," May moaned softly as she felt another wave of desire wash over her.

James smirked and moved his hand up to May's jumpsuit as he rips a hole in the front of her crotch. Then he moved her black thong aside as he brought his fingers down on top of May's clit.

May's eyes shot open as she cried out in ecstasy, her eyes rolling back in her head and her lips parting.

'This is what I've been missing for years!!!' May thought to herself as she writhed under the touch of her crew mate.

"J-James, don't leave me alone!" Beth pleaded while she was laying next to May. Playing with herself as she watched the second crew member cop a feel off May.

"Yes...Yes... Touche me James," Beth whimpered as she saw James move his attention to her body, mainly her big boobs that strained against her t-shirt. His hands were going all over Beth's torso and then he ripped her top apart, revealing Beth's big tits and even bigger nipples.

"James..." Beth moaned, her hips buckling at the sight of the large bulge straining against his pants area.

James looked over her de-aged sexy body and grinned, "You're such a hot piece, Beth. You make my cock harder than steel."

Beth moaned softly, "M-me too, James...please..."

"Okay..." he said as he unzipped his jumpsuit and let his huge erection spring free. Gone was the fat that used to be on his body; instead there was an athletic physique and muscles. He stroked himself, feeling his blood flow as the pre-cum lubricated his shaft.

"Please..." she begged as her hand went to her own pussy, already wet from being turned on.

'How is that monster supposed to fit inside Beth!? Wait! Fuck that! How's that thing going to fit inside me!?' May thought while she had conflicting emotions when watching Beth getting ready to take on this stud.

"Oh yes..." Beth moaned as she began to rub her fingers around her slit, finding her clit and sending waves of pleasure through her body.

Then May's hand slid between her legs and found Beth's pussy, rubbing the former 36 year old woman's pussy lips, her thumb sliding into the wet warmth of Beth's pussy. James could no longer wait as he pushed his monster cock slowly into Beth's body.

Beth's eyes shot open as she gasped at the sudden intrusion. The sensations of his cock invading her body, along with that of May's fingers on her clit sent shivers throughout her body.

"Ooohhh..." Beth moaned softly, her other hand going to her mouth to cover up the sound of her moan.

'Oh God! Look at Beth! She loves it! I never knew how fun it was to tease her. Mmmmmhhhh!' May thought as she rubbed more of her finger into Beth's pussy while getting rocked by James.

The first time James entered her, he was surprised at how tight she felt and wondered if he'd ever be able to penetrate her fully. But after just a few thrusts, he had no doubt that he would.

Her breasts jiggled and bounced as James drove his cock deeper into her body, feeling the heat of Beth's insides writhing around his shaft.

"Fuck!" James exclaimed as he felt another orgasm building up in his balls.

Beth's eyes shot wide open as she realized what was happening. 'I'm going to cum so soon!?' she thought. "Cum for me, James," she pleaded.

"God, you're fucking tight, Beth..." he grunted out.

"Yesssss...fuck me..." she demanded.

His hands pulled her ass cheeks apart, exposing her asshole as he slammed into her over and over again. "You want my cum, don't you?" he asked quietly, driving his cock deep into her pussy.

"Yes, oh yes..." Beth answered breathlessly.

James was amazed at how much pleasure he was giving her. It took a lot of willpower to keep himself from thrusting faster than he did, but he wanted to make sure that it was as pleasurable for Beth as possible. He wanted to get her and May pregnant with his child. And he might have succeeded. His cock was as hard as stone now and ready to go off.

"Go on, Beth..." James urged her.

She was about to answer when she felt something warm. A blast of white hot ecstasy ripped through her body like lightning. She screamed, but then followed it up with a louder scream as her orgasm washed over her.

"AUNGH!" she cried out. "GOD! YESSSS!"

Beth's legs were trembling as she tried to catch her breath. As her knees went weak while she lay there on the bed.

"Holy shit..." she heard May say.

"Is she alright?" James asked nervously.

May turned away from her to check on Beth, only to see that she was still gasping for air. "Ahhhh..." she gasped.

"That was intense," Beth said, turning her head back towards them. The sudden movement made her dizzy.

James smiled at her and bent down to kiss her gently. "Did you enjoy yourself, Beth?" he asked softly.

She nodded with a smile and kissed him back. "It's been too long since I had sex." She looked around at everyone else in the room. "So May are you going to take James' cock or are you going to let me have him?"

"What? But I'm smaller than you. James would tear me-mmmmmh!!!!" May was interrupted by Beth kissing her.

"Take it, May," Beth told her, smiling broadly. "We all need some release right now."

"Are you sure? You know we haven't done anything like this before," May protested.

"Come on, May. We're grown adults here who love each other. Plus you always talked a big game about being the best at sucking men off, or was that all tall?" Beth asked patiently.

'No! Why did I shoot off my mouth like that?' May thought with panic in her eyes.

"And James will do everything you ask him to. Now hurry up and suck him off. Hurry, before you miss your chance." Beth laughed.

May was shocked that Beth could be so casual about what just happened, but she put that aside for the moment as she got up onto her knees. "I can't believe I'm giving you head! I've never done anything like that before. Ever. But I'll try... I won't let you down, James."

"Good. Because if you don't give me your best, I might have to discipline you." He grinned.

"Like what? What's your disciplinary technique?" May asked excitedly.

"Well, I think it's time to find out." James said as he placed a hand on May's beautiful jet black hair.

"Oh God! James is guiding me to his monster dick! What do I d- Oooohhhh!"

May didn't realize it, but she was already licking the tip of his cock. Then she took him deeper inside her mouth with ease. James moaned loudly as she did so.

'Fuck me. I never knew how good deep throating was. Sooo goooooood!'

"Ohhh! Fuck!" Beth cried out, watching May's lips and tongue working on James' hard shaft.

"Fuck yes," he groaned as May deep threated him again, pushing his cock between her teeth.

It was at this point May's breasts were in pain as her bra was digging into growing tits.

Beth reached over and began removing the jumpsuit top then ripped off her shirt to see the lil fitting bra. So she started to move the straps from May's shoulders. They fell away and her breasts bounced free. The girls were much larger now. Her nipples were pink and they hardened instantly upon being free from her bra.

May's mind was going a hundred miles per minute as she wondered how long this was going to last. How much damage she was about to do to her body, or if she would die from sex overload.

Beth was getting horny watching her friend sucking James' cock so fiercely she needed to do something.

"Ohhh fuck yes," Beth moaned as she lowered her head between May's legs and began to eat her out.

'B-Beth!? What are you doing? You can't do that!' May thought in confusion.

May's pussy was dripping wet as Beth used her fingers to stroke and massage her clit. She moaned loudly as she continued to watch May's lips bobbing up and down on James' cock. It seemed to her that May had no gag reflex.

"James... Fuck me..." May whimpered as she closed her eyes tight. 'This isn't happening. This is only a dream.'

But still, May could feel the heat radiating from between her legs as Beth ate her out. Soon, Beth began to moan louder and faster against May's pussy.

"Aunh! James, she's ready for your cock! Put it in her! Ohhhhh!" Beth cried out as her orgasm ripped through her body like a lightning bolt.

Even though Beth was moaning, there was still plenty of room for James to pull his cock out of May's mouth and spun her about so he was behind her. He grabbed her hips with both hands and pushed his cock inside her.

"Aahh! J-James this is my first time!? Please don't hurt me!" May cried out.

"Shhh." James whispered, his voice deep and husky as he fucked her. "I won't hurt you. You're safe. Your body is changing but don't worry. I'll take care of you. Just relax and enjoy yourself."

As soon as James said those words May felt a wave of pleasure wash through her entire body. She felt the pressure in her stomach subside and the throbbing in her head cease.

'Aunh! Words can't describe how amazing this is! Aungh! I wish I did this early in my life! Maybe I wouldn't have been such an uptight bitch,' May thought.

Then she gasped, "Ooooh! OHHHHH!" as her pussy clenched around the shaft embedded within her. Her whole body tensed and her eyes rolled back as she came hard.

At last, he felt the familiar tingling in her womb as he moved slowly in and out of her. May looked over at Beth who was sitting on the edge of the bed, watching him. She could see her nipples were rock hard as she watched him fuck May.

He reached forward and grabbed a handful of Beth's ass, pulling her closer to him. He leaned down and kissed her, feeling the softness of her lips. They both moaned softly together. Then he slid his tongue into her mouth, tasting the sweetness of her saliva.

"You taste wonderful," James muttered as he moved to sit next to her. "Why are you so surprised?"

Beth blushed slightly, "It's just... I'd never expected someone to fuck me without asking. It feels wrong."

"No it doesn't. You're a beautiful woman. Your body is perfect."

"Thank you, I guess. But why does it feel so good? Why am I enjoying this so much?" Beth asked.

As Beth was questioning this crazy situation May's body started to get younger as she was hit with a pink wave of energy that no one could see or even detect. As the pink wave passed, May turned from a mature woman into a teenage girl. Her breasts grew larger, her hips widened, her waist shrunk, and her butt thickened. The her face became rounder, she had more freckles and her hair started to get curly as she turned into a 16 year old young lady.

"Aungh! My head feels dizzy! What's happening!?" May's voice was an octave higher. While she was getting fucked by James, May's mind was screaming in fear.

James laughed, "Relax, baby. I'm going to teach you how to have fun like all the girls do."

May looked up at him, her eyes wide and frightened. While her mind started changing into a teenager again, her body was becoming a young girl. In less than half a second, May went from being a sexual dynamo to a nervous schoolgirl.

"I don't know what's happening to me!" May shouted.

Her voice was now a soprano. She didn't understand what was happening to her, but she knew that something was very wrong.

James grabbed a hold of her shoulders and pushed her down onto the bed, straddling her. Suddenly he was kissing her deeply as his hands ran over her body.

When their lips parted, he whispered to her. "Don't worry, you'll soon learn how much pleasure you can get."

James' fingers began to caress May's body. All the while, she was growing younger as her skin smoothed, her hair got darker and longer, and her breasts grew fuller.

As James continued to fuck her pussy, her mind was still trying to comprehend what was happening to her. So far, she felt no pain, only ecstasy. And although she couldn't remember anything about herself, she did know one thing – James was giving her the most amazing sex she'd ever experienced.

Suddenly, she was aware of a high pitched voice in her ear. "Oh my god! Oh my god! I'm so fucking horny! Fuck me!"

May looked up and saw a mirror of herself as a teenager. A beautiful teenager that she never was. She knew this was not normal and needed to say something about this. When she tried to speak, the words came out as a high-pitched whine.

James laughed, "You're horny, aren't you?"

His hand cupped her tits, making them swell further.

"Do you want me to fuck your brains out?"

May nodded and moaned.

"Great! Let's get you off then," said James as he positioned himself behind her.

He kissed her neck, dragging his tongue along her collarbone. Then suddenly, she felt the tip of his cock push inside her.

May's eyes opened wide as a wave of pleasure coursed through her body. She was gasping and moaning and cumming. Her mouth fell open; she had forgotten how good it could feel to have a man inside her.

James thrust faster, pulling her head back by the hair, so he could lick her neck. His other hand was squeezing her ass cheeks.

"Yeah, baby! You like being fucked by a man? It feels so good when you moan and scream. Do you like having a big hard dick inside you?" James asked.

It took some effort for May to say, "Yes!"

"Good! Because I'm going to give you all I've got."

Then he slammed into her, pushing her legs against her shoulders.

For a moment, she thought that he would rip her apart. But there was no pain, just a powerful feeling of fullness spreading from her pelvis to her stomach.

"AUNGH!"

Her thoughts were interrupted by another shriek and a violent orgasm. As the girl squealed, her mind cleared enough for May to notice something else.

"Oh my god!" she gasped. "I don't ... I can't believe... I am..."

Struggling to think, she realized that her breasts were huge. They must have been double Ds before, but now they were bigger than her head! And pink energy was entering her belly as it got round, stretching her torn T-shirt taut over her midriff. She was pregnant and the pink energy was speeding up as she looked like she was in her second trimester already.

And then she remembered who she was, the engineer of the Sunray and what she was supposed to do which would be alerting the Captain about what has been happening to them.

"We need to leave," she gasped.

But James was still driving into her, grunting and moaning as he pumped his seed deep inside her fertile womb.

After a moment, her mind snapped back to reality. The pink energy left her stomach and she was herself again.

"Oh my god!" she exclaimed as she saw that Beth and James had become teenagers.

"No fucking way!" cried May. "You guys are supposed to be adults! What happened?"

"Don't worry, baby. Just relax and let yourself go," James said.

With that, Beth began to feel the same pink waves of energy as May. Beth's body was changing too. Her legs spread wider as she reached for the bed, and then her hands gripped the sheets as if strangling herself.

"Oh my god!" Beth cried out as she felt her arms and legs become longer. Her body shook and trembled as her muscles tensed up, turning her into an athletic young woman that she never was.

"What's happening to us!? What's happening!?" Beth moaned as herself started coming back.

In less than a second, Beth became a young 16 year old to match her fellow crew members. They were all teenagers, still confused about what was happening to them.

Beth seemed to have a clear mind.

"Stop it! Stop this madness!" Beth demanded as she got off the bed. "We're grown adults, damn it! We can't just turn into a bunch of horny teenagers. James I ordered you to-!"

"Shhh..." James cut her off.

He smiled down at her, "You'll enjoy it. Trust me."

"No!" Beth exclaimed.

James grabbed the front of Beth's chin and pulled her close. He kissed her hard and passionately, thrusting his tongue deep into her mouth. Their tongues wrestled against each other as she struggled to break free of his grasp. But then the young woman gave in. She froze up, like her mind was not in control anymore.

"Ahh...!" Beth gasped as she kissed him back.

Her mind was beginning to change as well, and Beth was feeling younger and hornier than ever. She was no longer the mature first mate of the Sunray, but instead a young teenager with uncontrollable hormones.

"Relax, baby," James whispered. "Trust me. Let us show you how to have fun."

His hand slid up her leg. It was smooth and soft, like silk. And when his fingers grasped her crotch, Beth could feel her insides pulsate. Her pussy quivered and twitched.

"I want you to cum for me now," James told her. His voice was so sensual that Beth's heart beat faster and her breathing quickened.

And Beth did as he said. As her mind grew more juvenile, her body began to move without her permission. Beth's hips rolled back and forth, grinding against his hand as she tried to resist. But she couldn't even think clearly enough to tell him to stop.

"Aunh! James!"

When she finally climaxed, Beth's body shuddered and convulsed. Tears streamed from her eyes, and she leaned against him, unable to speak or think clearly.

But when her orgasm ended, she found herself looking at him with wide eyes. "What...just happened?" she asked.

"It's okay, baby," James whispered. "That was only the first time."

"First time?" Beth repeated. "Oh my God!"

Beth noticed she too was pregnant just like May was. There was some kind of odd sense inside her head; she had a sensation that something great was about to happen.

"Now, it's your turn, baby," James informed her.

Beth looked at him blankly. "What do you mean?"

"You two are caring my children now. I'm going to take care of you too."

As soon as James put his hand on her stomach, Beth felt a sudden jolt. Her eyes shot open and she cried out, "What? No! Don't touch me there!"

But it was too late. The pink ore was already affecting her unborn child and suddenly she was experiencing the same sensations as May.

"No!" Beth screamed. "Stop! This is happening too fast!"

James smiled, "Baby, we're all young again – let's have some fun!"

Then, as if by magic, May's and Beth's belly began to swell, and their breasts grew heavier. They were both shocked and confused, but then they realized that this was exactly what the pink crystal did. It changed them back to teenagers in every way possible. They were going to become teen mom's who would bear James' babies.

They weren't sure whether they should be happy or sad. But as soon as Beth's pregnancy peaked, she knew that the pink ore must have been responsible for all these strange things that happened. Started after they brought that thing aboard. And she was having trouble thinking of a way to get rid of it before anything else went wrong.

May and Beth were helpless under James' strength and libido. Their bodies trembled and shivered when he touched them. His hands caressed their breasts. Then his fingers slid down their sides. Before long, he was fondling their bottoms. He pressed his erection into their bellies, feeling the heat radiating from their skin.

"You two look so sweet together," he said, "I always wanted two beautiful girlfriends. Now, you've given me everything I ever hoped for."

May and Beth couldn't believe that they were excited at the opportunity to be mother's to his children.

"I can see why you call yourselves the dream team," he teased them. "If only our captain could see us now."

The pregnant teens were squirming under his touch. Both of them were growing wet between their legs. But they dared not respond directly. If they did, they'd be lost forever as teenage girls.

"Okay, baby girl," he said, taking off her shirt. "Let's get you out of these torn clothes. You'll need to wear something more comfortable on your big day."

He lifted her arms over her head and removed her shirt. "And don't worry, I'll keep your precious cargo nice and warm."

Then, as if by magic, her nipples hardened and they became pointy. He pinched them lightly and the twins jerked against his palms. "Ooh, you feel like a pair of plums."

When he had taken off Beth's panties, she felt her face flush. Her breasts were huge and heavy, pushing up against her chest. The flesh was firm yet soft, with puffy hard nipples that pointed straight at him. James licked each one in turn, flicking his tongue around the tip. "Mmm, little milk maids."

He kept sucking on her erect nipple until she was gasping with desire. A moment later, May's other breast was being treated the same way. They both moaned softly as they enjoyed the sensation. After a minute of James' teasing their breasts started licking a white liquid from their nipples.

"We're going to make such wonderful parents," he told them. "But first, my cock needs some attention."

He kissed them gently and put his hand on their swollen stomachs.

"I'm lactating!? But I'm too old to be a mother?" Beth exclaimed, not knowing that she was actually 16 years old again.

James nodded and began sliding his hand lower, feeling the soft swell of their bellies.

Beth's mouth opened wide as he touched her pussy lips, then slid his finger inside her.

"You're both lactating because you're pregnant," he replied, "and because I want to fuck you."

Beth and May gasped. It was too much. As his fingers dug into their hips, his penis was sliding into them as their lactating breasts pressed against his belly.

"Oh god!" Beth cried, "You feel so good! Please, continue... please..."

James responded by pumping his hips forward, driving deeper into her. She was hot and wet, opening up to him eagerly.

"Are you mine Beth!? Ohh!" James moaned as he plunged deeper into her.

"Yes! Yes! Mmmm! I'm yours James!"

May reached down and took hold of her own pussy, rubbing herself as she watched Beth's reaction. And as James drove himself deep into Beth's body, she found she was wetter than ever before.

"OOHH! I'm your what? MMMM!" James grunted as he sank into her. His hips pushed forward, shoving his thick shaft into her womb. Her muscles clamped down on him, sending jolts of pleasure through his groin.

"AUNGH!!! I-I'M YOUR GIRLFRIEND!!!" Beth screamed out, her voice shrill.

It was just like her dream she had of loving a boyfriend. Only this time, it was happening and she did not stop him. She wanted to do anything he asked her – anything at all.

"MMMMHHH! GIVE ME YOUR LOVE BETH! GIVE ME CHILDREN! I'VE ALWAYS WANTED TO BE A FATHER AND NOW YOU'RE GIVING IT TO ME!!"

In response of James' roar, she felt his balls churning.

"AUNGH! AUNH! YES! JAMES! I'LL GIVE YOU EVERYTHING! I'M YOUR WOMAN! I'D DO ANYTHING FOR YOU! I'M OLDER THAN YOU ARE! BUT I'M STILL GOING TO SUCK ON YOUR COCK WHILE WE MAKE BABIES!" Beth suddenly arched her back, her arms reaching for the ceiling. Then she gasped in ecstasy. "Ooooooh! You're cumming inside me! I love it! God, I love it! I feel young again! I never want this to end!"

"God, you're so tight!" James groaned as he came. He had been ready to pull out, but her squeezing around his shaft made him unable to stop himself from ejaculating. The thick liquid spurted into her, filling her up until there was nothing left to pump into her.

"AHHHHH! OH GOD! DON'T STOP MAKING ME COME!" Beth yelled as her eyes rolled up from the climax.

With a final shudder, James pulled out of her.

Beth laid back onto the bed, sighing as she wiped her face with her hands. Her breasts were still full and firm, even though James was done with her for the moment. He looked to May who was playing with herself from what she saw.

"Hey, honey," she said as she turned to look at him with passion in her eyes.

May's eyes went wide when she realized what she'd said. "Oh shit! Shit! I mean...it's okay if you don't wanna...um..." She ducked under the sheets, trying to hide her embarrassment. "I can wait."

"Nonsense," James replied as he walked over to May, pulling her back from under the blankets. "You have to make me come now. It's only fair after I been fucking Beth's brains out. I can't neglect you, May."

"But, James, you're tired!" May protested.

"So I am. But that's not a good excuse for neglecting to take care of my needy girlfriend!" James exclaimed, grabbing her clit and squeezing it hard enough to make her squeal softly. His cock twitched in agreement.

May's eyes rolled up. "Yes!" she cried as her body convulsed. Soon, she was done. She sighed happily as he pulled away from her, which was something she didn't do often. Her hand went up to her lactating breasts and pulled her nipples as hard as she could. Spraying her milk everywhere.

"AUNGH! MY BOOBS ARE SO FULL! I CAN FEEL THE MILK RIPPING FROM THEM!" May moaned as she rubbed and pinched her tits.

"That's more like it," James muttered as he climbed into the bed beside her, reaching down to grab her leg.

"It feels so right to milk myself? Aunh!" May whispered as she continued to play with her tits.

James grabbed her other thigh and began to move his hand up and down, teasing her with his fingers. "Why don't we try this?" he asked as his fingertips slipped between her legs, going straight for her slit.

"YES! YES! SUCK ON MY CLIT! MAKE ME COME! I WANT TO FEEL YOU PULLING OUT OF MEEEEEEEEEE!" May screamed as she felt the pleasure radiate through her body like an electrical current. In seconds, she came. The orgasm took her by surprise and she couldn't help but scream as it consumed her.

Pulling his fingers free, James smiled at May who was still panting on the bed. "Well then, that wasn't too bad, now was it?" he asked.

"No, it wasn't! And I would do it again," May answered.

"Good," James said, while positioning himself in-between her legs. "Because I'm gonna come inside you, May."

"GOD! DO IT NOW!" she begged, feeling his cock rub against her pussy lips.

"Patience, dear. Patience," James replied, pushing forward and burying himself inside her.

"AUNH! FUUUCCCKK!" May shrieked as he pushed inside her. Even after taking James earlier she still couldn't believe how good it felt to have him fill her up. It was an experience she never wanted to end.

"Ngh... aahh..." May's voice faded as he moved his hips, fucking her faster now.

"OH! Fuck, May! Your insides are tight as hell!" James complained.

"I think you're just getting used to me! I'll get even tighter!" May teased as she reached out to feel his ass. His cock was pounding into her as she tried to squeeze him to the best of her ability.

"Oh god, yes! You're not kidding!" James gasped.

May bit her lower lip and looked up at him. "You want me to cum, don't you?" she asked.

"Yes! Yes! God, I need to feel your walls gripping my cock!" James groaned.

"Then make me your wife not a girlfriend! Aunh! Make me your wife and I'll do everything you say!" May moaned, desperate for release.

"Fuck, you are incredible!" James exclaimed. "I'll fucking put a ring on that finger!"

"Tell me how! Tell me what you want from me... what you expect from me..." May breathed as she gripped the sheets.

James grabbed her hands and kissed her mouth. "I want you to marry me. I want you to be my wife. We can go to the captain and have her officiate it! Oh! MMMM!" he grunted as he held onto her wrists.

"God! Yes! I'll marry you! FUCK ME AND I'LL GIVE YOU A CHILD!" May cried, her body buckling under the pleasure.

With a loud cry, James came hard, pumping his seed deep into May.

"AUNGH! SO MUCH CUM!!!! AUNH! AUNH! HHHEEEEEYYYY!" May screamed as she climaxed along with him.

"Haah! Haah! Fuck how did I get so lucky getting a wife like you May?" James sighed, pulling out and collapsing on top of her.

'Mmmm. It took all these years to finally get a man! I'll never let him go now,' May thought as she stared up at the ceiling.

"That was such a sweet proposal." May giggled.

"It was damn well better than a flower basket!" James snorted.

"H-Hey, what about me? I want to be your wife too." Said the now shy 16 year old Beth.

"Well I guess we'll have to be married twice then since there's three of us here!" James exclaimed.

"Two wives? One husband! What a great idea!" May agreed. "And if anyone says anything, tell them it's a little tradition the three of us share!"

"May are you okay sharing James with me?" Beth asked nervously.

"Of course, but you have to promise to be my sister. I never had a sister before."

"Damn, I love this family! I'm going to love being a part of it!" James said with a wide grin.

"Yeah, I think I'll like being a sister too," Beth smiled.

"I don't know about you two but I think I can sleep for a week." James yawned as he rolled over.

Beth lay down beside him, cuddling into his side. "You're not mad at me for wanting you, right?" she whispered in his ear, reaching between them to stroke his cock.

He smiled, sighing softly as he wrapped an arm around her. "You just made me the happiest man alive."

"Hey don't leave me out of this!" May said as she joined in on the hand job.

James fell asleep instantly after that.

Then, as if by magic, May's and Beth's belly began to swell, and their breasts grew heavier. They were both shocked and confused, but then they realized that this was exactly what the pink crystal did. It changed them into teenagers in every way possible. They were going to become teen mom's with James as the father. But as soon as Beth's and May's pregnancy peaked, Beth knew that the pink crystal must have been responsible for all these strange things that happened.

It started after they brought that thing aboard. And she was having trouble thinking of a way to get rid of it before anything else went wrong. But the former 36 year old first mate of the Sunray mind was getting dumber by the minute.

"Oh my belly feels so heavy," May groaned, pulling herself up to sit next to Beth. Both young teens began to feel the baby kicking inside them as they looked like they are in their third trimester.

Beth bit her lower lip when she felt her baby moving inside her. It felt so strange because she always wanted to be a mother but never thought it would happen like this.

"We'll have to go to Danielle, let her check us out," Beth told May as she rested her head against her friend's shoulder. "I think I need some more rest now."

"Me too. Thank you for everything you've done. You're a good friend." May replied, kissing the other pregnant woman on her forehead.

"I wonder if I'm having a boy or a girl?" Beth asked as she laid her head back onto the pillow.

"That's a question only the doc can answer," May responded, squeezing her hand. "But I think it's a boy judging by how strong those kicks are."

"Hehehe, I can't believe we are getting married!?" Beth laughed.

May also giggled as she nodded. "I mean, I thought it would be nice to be married with your best friend, but I never imagined that this would happen."

"James is a beast! I don't think one wife is enough for him!" Beth joked.

"Maybe," May chuckled. "And he's certainly got the stamina to go with it."

"So, where do you want to live once the baby comes?" Beth asked seriously.

"I would like to live on Mars or do you want to stay here?" May asked.

"Mars sounds great! We might even be able to raise our sons there. All we need to do is buy some land and build a house. And then I can give James more babies, hehehe!" Beth giggled like a school girl with the effects of the pick crystal.

"You're such a dork! But I love you anyway." May kissed her softly on the lips. "And we will talk to the doctor about these symptoms tomorrow morning. Plus I'll be the one to give James all his baby, Dork."
