-Sombra Story-

-Underword-

Underword person #1: ruuuun!!!

Underword person #2: AAAARGGH!!! **crash**

The village inhabitants of the Underworld are under attack... A man dressed in an elegant black suit seems to be responsible for such destruction :O

Sombra: hmm... It's taking longer than usual, dont you think, Nightmare?

Nightmare: The amphora is not here ... none of the possessed knows where it is. The only thing we know is that boy was the last to have it ... we already destroyed his old house here and we didn't find anything ... I don't understand what's going on. Going straight to him right now might be an option, but ...

Sombra: You said that his clone didn't remember it either, even though he has his memories.

Nightmare: hmmm...

Sombra: hmmm...

Underworld civilian: please sir!! Let me go!! Dx

Sombra and Nightmare are destroying the village of the Underworld to find out more about the whereabouts of the amphora, but they have no luck. As they ponder their possibilities, Sombra points a hand at a civilian ...

Sombra: "It's time of your judgment - come with your maker" ...

Some crystals are formed through the body of the civilian, executing him on the spot.

Nightmare: You keep surprising me ... you have a lot of tricks up your sleeve O___o

Sombra: This is the duty of a deity like me. Eliminate those useless lives to create much better ones.

Sombra points once more to a nearby village ... from his hand a black mist begins to flow. In it, small red crystals begin to form around all the people ...

Sombra: Your futile and miserable lives will be sheltered under the wing of a god. You will thank me when you are part of my ideal, of my concept where each of you will have the importance that you deserve. "It's time of your judgment - come with your maker" ...

Each of the civilians is executed one by one by the red crystals formed on their bodies...

Underworld civilian #2: AAAAAAARRGH!!!

Underworld civilian #3: NOOOOOOOOO!!! *crash*

Sombra: this is for the cause.

Underworld civilian #4: NOOOOO-AAAARGG!! *crash*

...

Nightmare: Hey, how we're supposed to collect information now. You have eliminated them all :/

Sombra: I think I have the information that we need.

Nightmare, a little confused, demands an explanation...

Nightmare: ?!.. hmm? What do you mean.

Sombra: think about it. That young man was the last to have the amphora, however he doesn't remember it. I made a shadow clone with the memories of Cozy on that guy, which the clone also has all the previous memories of that young man when he was a bad guy, but he couldn't remember it either, this means that portion of memory was somehow removed...

Nightmare: And there is only one object capable of removing portions of memories.

Sombra and Nightmare: The memory Stone.

Nightmare: Are you implying that boy had something to do with the Memory Stone?

Sombra: hmmm... that stone has been around for many years, but it's an Equestria object.

Nightmare: Yes, but it was Clover who brought it to this world and hid it, remember?... The last I heard about that stone is that green skinned girl, the broccoli head, was the one who used it. Do you think that young man stole it for her without knowing its effects, and thus lost his memories of the amphora?

Sombra: I dont know... We cannot rule out this theory, but even if that young man was not the one who stole the stone, and it was only that girl who found it by luck, a map or whatever, definitely he had something to do with that stone or at least, its effects. That stone has already been destroyed, right?

Nightmare: I think so.

Sombra: hmm... **thinking**

Nightmare: Maybe we can go to find that girl, the broccoli head ... Maybe she knows something of that memories before of use that stone. And if we are not lucky, maybe she still has magic particles of that stone. We can use it and create our own stone capable of returning the memories erased by the Memory Stone, It's like creating a cure using the same virus.

Sombra: Yes you're right. It's our logical choice for now. ... ..

Nightmare looks at Sombra, with a doubtful expression ...

Nightmare: I don't see you very convinced, is something wrong with you?

Sombra: Im trying to understand some relationship between the amphora and that stone. Why would that young man use that stone?... or he was a victim of it? Maybe there is someone else who knows the power of that artifact, and decided to erase the memories of the amphora in that boy. Arggh.. Even if we had that brat before us now, it would be useless ...

Nightmare: Our only plan for now is to find to the green girl, and that she answer a few questions. If we can find particles of the Memory Stone in her, it will be worth the trip. If not, you can execute her like you did with all the humans here.

Sombra: go.

Sombra and Nightmare decide to head to the city for their next target.

-Doppelganger Story-

Doppelganger: pfffffffffff.. booooooooooooooooooooooring!!

I'm still unsuccessfully looking for my entourage of beautiful girls :( .. how does that idiot do it?

Doppelganger: Will it be his clothes? That stupid fringe that you can't even see his eyes? Dx .. hmmm hmmm hmmm...

Immersed in my thoughts, I see a beautiful girl walking in my direction ...

Beautiful blonde girl: tutu-rururu ^o^ **whistling**

Time to do my move! :D

Doppelganger: Hello precious woman! You seem to have a fever of meeting a gallant boy, and I'm what the doctor ordered :D!

Beautiful blonde girl: EEEKK!!! Pervert!!!

**SLAP!!**

Doppelganger: OOOOFFFFFF!!

Instead of being complimented, do I get slapped? Dx .. how badly distributed the world is! >_<!

Oh wait.. what is this. A strange mist begins to appear now?...

Doppelganger: **sigh** ... Nightmare ~.~

Nightmare appears in front of me.

Nightmare: How is everything boy? that slap will hurt tomorrow hehehe!

Doppelganger: what do you want, I no longer work for you x(

Nightmare: Sombra is looking for that green girl ... what's her name?

Doppelganger: Green girl? You mean Wallflower? What can that man want with her?

Nightmare: long story, where is she?

Doppelganger: heh, are you really waiting for me to tell you? lol

I haven't had contact with Wallflower since the beach incident ... well, technically it wasn't me, but ... you understand me right?

XD

Nightmare: Okay, I guess we'll have to do it of the other way
U_U

Okay, this is bad. As far as I know, Nightmare is unable to fight in its etheric form, in the same way, it's immune to battle damage. Nightmare was always a support, my support and the support of that man.

I switch to my offensive stance, just in case. I don't have the same limitations that the other fool, this means that I can fight and use my maximum force 😊

Doppelganger: I don't see how a simple smoke with eyes can hurt me ... you are a support more nothing. What will you do, possess me? HAAAAAAAAAAAAAH!

Nightmare: hhm? Who said that I'll be the one to fight you? XD
Out of nowhere, red crystals begin to appear around the place. They are large in size, and within them i can see dark humanoid figures ...

Doppelganger: the heck is that... o.o

Then the crystals shatter, revealing beings I have never seen before ... If I had to describe them, they are like people ... but they don't have human faces or features ... what the heck are those things.

???: Destroy and then made... behold the power of a god, miserable traitor.

A deep voice is heard in the distance ...

Doppelganger: it's you!... ahmm... what is your name?

Sombra: Sombra -_- '... ahem... where is this green girl.

I can feel an indescribable power ... I never felt this sinister aura before, why now i can feel it?! ..

Doppelganger: You ruined my moment with a beautiful girl ... I will never forgive you!! you bastards, get ready to know the pain!

Sombra: attack!

At the command of that man, the humanoid figures charge at me...

Doppelganger: useless!!

**PUNCH!!* *KICK!!* *SMASH!!!!**

One by one I get rid of those garbages. However, I must keep my guard on, It's a horde and they can be dangerous if all of them get close to me.

Nightmare: His speed is incredible ... it will be difficult for you to even try to hit him, Sombra.

Sombra: Hmm .. don't make me laugh, are you underestimating me?

Nightmare: oh... :S ... of course not but...

Doppelganger: done!! Listen to that talking smoke, get out of here while you can, Trompa!!

I continue in my battle stance...

Sombra: It's SOMBRA!!... I heard that you are now studying in a school, is that true?

Huh? ... what is he up to now?

Sombra: You know that even if you are as fast as light, there is something that even you cannot escape. Do you know what that is called?

That man raises his hand...

Sombra: "Gravity Well"!!

A black sphere rises to the sky, it is like a storm that slowly draws me towards it ...

Doppelganger: what is that!!

Sombra: It's a small portion of a micro black hole. A region of spacetime where gravity is so strong that nothing can escape from it... even the light. And nothing in this universe or in any other, is faster than light.

Is that man capable of creating a damn black hole?!

Sombra: Don't worry, Its size is microscopic and it won't absorb this world hehe, but it's powerful enough to prevent any being from escaping, or just slow it down. Perfect against people with super speed, like you.

Nightmare: If it were the size of a pinhead, it could destroy this planet :3 ...This is not magic... it's science :D!!

Dammit! Does he really have that thing to counteract my speed?!

Doppelganger: I don't need speed to destroy you! I won't let you lay a hand on Wallflower or anyone else, did you hear me, Simba?

Listen to me !! In what minute I became the good guy!! Dx

Sombra: SOMBRAAAAAAAA!!!!... heh come on, attack me.

Doppelganger: as you wish!!

I charge against that man ... he again raises his hand, this time pointing at me ...

Doppelganger: Are you making fun of me?!!

I throw a flurry of blows, however...

Sombra: "Soko made da"

Doppelganger: Take thi-...UUGH!!

My body suddenly becomes paralyzed for a short time ... then ...

Sombra: "Shine"

**SMAAASHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH**

Doppelganger: grrrrrrr-aaaaaaaaAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAGGHH!!!

At that precise moment, something hits me directly. It's so powerful that it throw me through the air a couple of meters! I feel like my body is being crushed by a bulldozer!

Doppelganger: He didn't even move a muscle, he just raised his hand ... what was that!

Sombra: It's a parry.

Doppelganger: parry?

Nightmare: You were beaten by a simple parry ... pathetic hah!
A parry is the immediate action to counterattack in the middle of an enemy attack. Sombra's parry cannot be blocked, if you attack in his parry stance, you will receive your own damage multiplied by 2.

Sombra: As you see, I don't need to attack, just a simple parry is enough to defeat you. I'll ask you one more time, where is the girl.

Doppelganger: shut up your ugly mouth! This is not over yet, Alfombra!

Sombra: **sigh** It's... Sombra, kid.

Okay, I can't attack him since he blocked me with his parry, and I can't use my speed because of his black hole. Nop.. i cannot win this.

Doppelganger: Why you guys are looking for Wallflower ... what does she have to do with this!

Sombra: For the Memory Stone, we must know if that object had something to do with the removal of your memories.

Doppelganger: The amphora, right? You want to know if the Memory Stone is related with your amphora.

Sombra: that's right.

Doppelganger: And what do you gain with that? Are you planning to restore my memories or those of the other fool to find out where that object is? HAH! That will be impossible, that's not how the Memory Stone works.

Nightmare: We won't know if we don't try ^_^ . She was the one who used that object, maybe she can tell us something useful.

???: Wait!

While Nightmare was speaking, a female voice is heard in the distance, interrupting its dialogue.

???: I have information that may be useful to you, but in return you should leave this place...

Doppelganger: hmm?? Who are you...

A woman appears out of the mist...

WOOOOOOAHH!!!

Doppelganger: my goodness!! Hello lady Terminator! :D .. What do you think if you remove your magic shields because your Dopy Schwarzenegger has arrived, huh? :D

???: eek!! Get off me!! **slap!!!**

Doppelganger: OOOOOOOOFFFFF!!!! D'x ...

Sombra: Tempest Shadow. I have heard many things about you ...you know, certain person would like to see you, but that is not the important thing now. Tell me, what kind of information do you have for me?

Tempest: Go to Tartarus ... there you can find valuable information that can lead you to the whereabouts of the amphora. That girl you're looking for won't help you at all.

Doppelanger: What are you doing woman?! He is the enemy! Dx

Sombra: Hmm ... it's a possibility. The Tartarus of the human world is different from the Tartarus of Equestria.

Nightmare: I have been in that place, and I know that the boy has been there in the past stealing objects, perhaps we can find information as this woman says.

Tempest: That's much better than wasting time interrogating that girl who won't know anything. The Memory Stone will not restore anyone's memory, and the very idea of collecting "magic particles" is meaningless, especially if a long time has passed from the incident with the stone.

The man seems to be thinking about that possibility.

Sombra: Alright well, we have nothing to lose. But, If you lie, you know I'll find you and you will be judged immediately.

Nightmare: heh, see you around!

Sombra and Nightmare disappear with the mist.

Doppelganger: you lost your mind?!

Tempest: That will give us time. Come with me.

The woman takes my arm and starts to run ...

After reaching an alley, another human figure approaches from the shadows ...

Starlight: Thanks Equestria... you did it Tempest, with this we buy time * relief* u,u

Oh my!!

Doppelganger: Hello purple haired sweetie :D, If beauty were a crime the judge would give you life imprisonment :D!

Starlight: huh? O.o

Doppelganger: I know what you are thinking and the answer is yes, Im available :D

Tempest: This is not the time to flirt, you moron!

**SLAP!!!**

Doppelganger: OOOOOOOOOFFFFF!!! ... .. 3 to 0 against me, today is not my day x'(
(

Tempest: **sigh** I hope this work.

Doppelganger: Sorry but did I miss something?

Tempest: Right, we have to explain everything to this fool Dx.

\ Tempest explains everything to the Doppelganger**

Doppelganger: Do you plan to use Tartarus as a "battlefield" against Sombra?

Tempest: I contacted a merchant in the Underworld, he sold us some "seal traps", which will allow us to seal some Sombra abilities, I hope they are strong enough for him.

Starlight: There are rogues in Tartarus. They will put the traps in strategic locations and leave immediately.

Doppelganger: So, do they plan to confront Sombra, sealing his abilities?

Starlight: We know that it will not be enough, his power is too great for us but... Once his abilities are sealed, we can defeat him I'm sure!

Doppelganger: Hey, I hope you're not leaving me out of this ... I want to help you.

Tempest: You are not exactly the Holy Knight we need, but you are very strong. I count on you so that you and I are the first line.

Doppelganger: Not only beautiful, but you're also a true warrior... Hey, what do you think if after beating that man, I show you why people call me "the human tripod" heh? :D

Tempest: ㄟ.ㄟ'

Doppelganger: Will I take it as a maybe? :D

Tempest: Now I'm not so sure that this guy will help us with this Dx

Starlight: hehehe ^^ **giggles**

Even though the girls laugh, it's time to get a little serious ... >_<

Doppelganger: hey, do you know why Tomba wants that amphora so badly?

Tempest: It's Sombra. The name of this artifact is: "The traveler's amphora", it is a ceramic container that contains immeasurable power.

Starlight: There are many stories around that amphora. It's said that whoever possesses their powers will be able to travel between alternate worlds and dimensions at will.

Tempest: It's unknown who created that amphora, but it has even been around since before Equestria or this human world was founded.

Starlight: We still don't have the knowledge to know if it is an object created in this world, or belongs to Equestria, but somehow now it's here. I could say that it's without a doubt the most dangerous object in both worlds ☹️. Since we know of Sombra's intentions to acquire such power, and that now he is obsessed with being the new "messiah", we suppose that he wants to take control not only of this world, but of Equestria and of all dimensions or alternate worlds.

Tempest: And not only that, the amphora is capable of making its wearer travel through time, that means that Sombra could change the history however he wants. And last but not least, the incredible new power of Sombra will help him a lot to achieve his goal if we don't do something.

WOAH.. that man is crazy!!

Doppelganger: Well now I understand what he was saying to Nightmare and me.

Starlight: oh? :O .. what are you talking about?

Doppelganger: He repeated to us over and over again, that once he gets that amphora, he will be able to obtain the power of the "Storm King in his origin form". He also said that "that final" should never have been part of the story, but that the correct place was where that little girl and that great beast turned everyone to stone.

Tempest: ... hmm...

Starlight: ... that final? .. i dont undertand.. :S

Doppelganger: Hey, What are you afraid of? Here you have your Paladin ready to fight alongside two beautiful girls! :D

Tempest: I don't understand how he can be so confident after everything we told him O_O

Starlight: We need to trust Tempest ^-^

... - END :D -
