HA!

Local man forgets he likes making comics

Art crisis lol.

I'm not sure I enjoy making sketchbook art that just exists to look good. These have no meaning, no narrative (...) and I didn't learn anything. I can make better comics on the tablet so I keep a sketchbook for other stuff, but if I'm not drawing to chill out - mindless doodler - and not to study... idk. I think it comes out like crap. It doesn't have any life. I guess either I start doing bad comics in here or HM.

pathetic

What

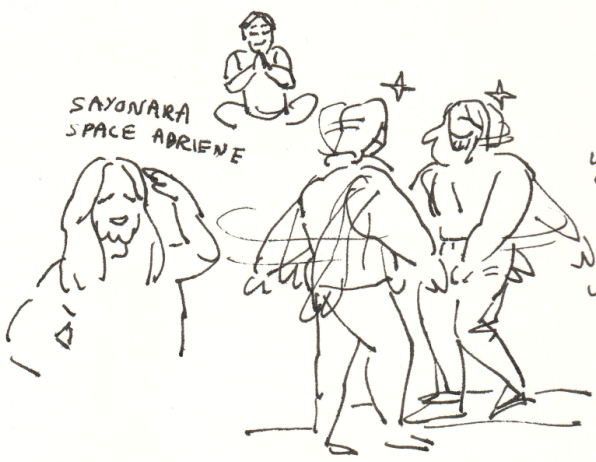

see, I like this. It has purpose + life.

Need to use a pencil again... it kinda feels like cheating, which is bullshit. Manx man.
